BOMB SHATTERS RECEPTION ROOM IN U. S. CAPITOL, BUT NO ONE IS HURT

Tremendous Explosion Occurs Shortly Before Midnight in Place Where Public Is Received on Senate Side of Building.

OPINION IS EXPRESSED THAT THE EXPLOSIVE WAS PLACED BY CRANK

Doors of Capitol Closed and No One Allowed to Enter While Investigation Is Under Way—Explosion Is Heard for Several Blocks and Caused a Panic.

Washington, July 2.—A tremendous explosion, believed to have been caused by some kind of bomb or infernal machine, wrecked the public reception room on the east side of the capitol building shortly before midnight tonight. No one was injured.

Called for Explosive Expert.

Superintendent Wood, of the capitol building, summoned by panic-stricken watchmen, made a hurried investigation and then telephoned for an expert on explosives.

Until the expert has made his report no official statement concerning the incident will be made public.

Officials believe that the explosive was placed by a crank who desired to create a sensation. Visitors were allowed in the room during the day and a timed machine might have been left without attracting attention.

The building had been closed since dark and there was no one in it but the watchmen and telephone switchboard operators. Watchman Jones, on the floor below, at the east entrance, said he was blown from his chair.

Report Heard a Mile.

The report could be heard for a mile and in a few minutes a crowd of excited people had gathered. In the meantime lights had been switched on and excited officials were rushing back and forth on two floors of the great building.

After the first rumors of a bomb, some of the investigators concluded that the blast had been caused by spontaneous combustion in a gas pipe. The sides of the wall were torn out, however, and all the pipes apparently were intact. There had been no gas fixtures on the senate side since an explosion occurred there nearly twenty years ago, it was said.

A strong odor permeated the building, but none seemed able to detect just what it was. No trace could be found of an exploded bomb or of anything else which might have caused the explosion.

Hint to Administration.

Superintendent Wood said he had examined the structural features of the building and found there was no damage except in the immediate vicinity of the reception room.

While some officials thought the explosion was the work of an irresponsible crank, with no other end in view than a sensation, others seriously suggested that it might have been perpetrated by some one desiring to demonstrate his disapproval of some of the policies of the American government. It was apparent there was no intent to destroy life, as it is generally known the room is empty at night.

Blighted Romance Causes Young Man To Attempt Suicide

Despondency, brought on by the memory of a blighted romance, was given as the cause of an attempted suicide by a young man living at 51 West Cain street.

F. G. Warring, age 24, of Florence, S. C., who came to Atlanta in quest of a position six weeks ago, was rushed to Grady hospital, when found by boarders in an apparently dying condition. He had taken permanganate of potash, which was extracted from his system in time to save his life by Grady internes.

As Warring slowly revived from the effects of the poison, he told his story to the internes.

"I am thinking, tonight, of my pretty little wife," he said, "whom I left four years ago. She is now married to another.

"I left college at the age of nineteen to marry her despite the threats of my father to disinherit me from a large fortune. We lived happily a year, and, foolishly, separated, although love still reigned supreme between us.

"She divorced me and is now married.

"In the meantime both father and mother died, leaving me $30,000 to remain in the hands of a guardian until I should become 28 years old. I got only $25 a month from him, so I had to come to Atlanta in quest of a position in order that I might have more money.

"Tonight, I began to think of the old days, and I thought of little Helen, whom I left school to marry. I miss her, and now I realize my mistake.

"I guess, though, doctor, since you have saved my life, that I will stick to it, and make a man of myself."

After telling his story Warring was sent from the clinic to a room in the observation ward on the fourth floor, where he will be held until his condition becomes better, and he is able to leave the hospital.

GEN. PORFIRIO DIAZ CALLED BY DEATH

Master of Mexico for 35 Years—Diaz Was Overthrown by Madero and Took Refuge in Paris.

Paris, July 2.—General Porfirio Diaz, former president of Mexico, died here early tonight.

General Diaz's wife, Senora Carmen Romero Rubio Diaz, and their son, Porfirio Diaz, Jr., and the latter's wife were by his side when the end came.

General Diaz began to fail rapidly about three weeks ago, and while his death was not unexpected, owing to his advanced age and recent failing health, the crisis came suddenly this afternoon. Porfirio Diaz, Jr., and his wife were hastily summoned and arrived at the bedside only a few moments before the end, which came at 7 o'clock tonight.

Colonel Diaz, in announcing the death of his father, said that he was unable to state the nature of the malady, but expressed the opinion that a complication of diseases, due to advanced age, was the cause.

Two tragic circumstances marked the death of the exiled ruler. Owing to the troubled state in Mexico it has been judged impossible to send the body home with all that ceremony which would have befitted one of the figures of Mexican history, and further, Colonel Porfirio Diaz, Jr., has tried in vain to inform his sisters, Senora Ignacio De La Terre and Senora Rincon Gallardo, now in Mexico, of their father's death.

None of Men He Made With Him.

Not less tragic, perhaps, is the fact that not one of those whom General Diaz raised up as his assistants in governing Mexico and who prospered and grew rich in the shadow of his greatness were with him when he died. Jose Yves De Limantour, former Mexican minister of finance, is in London; Francisco De La Barra, former provisional president of Mexico and holder of other important positions, and Guillermo De Landa, former governor of the federal district in Mexico, are in Biarritz, France. Scarcely any one outside the family knew of the seriousness of General Diaz's illness or that he was in Paris.

The end seems to have been brought about by failure of the heart, weakened by an attack of grippe last year.

This illness left the aged exile blind. Nevertheless, he walked daily last spring in the Bois de Boulogne, which he loved because it resembled the Chapultepec in Mexico City. He had been hoping to go to Biarritz shortly, but illness prevented.

General Diaz lived here in simplicity, occupying a modest apartment in striking contrast to the great houses

Education Board Planning To Place the High Schools Of Atlanta Under One Head

CARE TO BE TAKEN OF SOUTH'S COTTON

Federal Reserve Board Preparing to Handle the Crop Next Fall—Harding Is Looking Into Conditions.

Washington, July 2.—The federal reserve board has decided to take every possible precaution to prevent a recurrence next fall of conditions such as confronted the south last year as a result of the unusually large cotton crop and the shutting off of a large part of the European market.

In carrying out its plan the board has appointed a committee with W. P. G. Harding as chairman to examine into conditions and determine the best way in which the coming crop may be taken care of. Although no one on the board pretends to be able to forecast accurately the next cotton crop, members think it will not be more than 12,000,000 bales. Last year's production was slightly more than 16,000,000 bales.

Mr. Harding has written a letter to the federal reserve agent of each of the four southern federal reserve banks asking for information and expressing the belief that under present conditions, with large surplus reserves in the banks, there is every reason to expect that the next crop can be taken care of without difficulty. He also noted that the domestic demand for cotton is increasing.

Mr. Harding's Letter.

Mr. Harding's letter follows:

"The federal reserve board, realizing the possibility of a congestion of stocks of cotton this fall due to abnormal conditions in our export trade, desires full information regarding the facilities in your district for warehousing and financing the cotton which would under ordinary conditions be exported. The board has, therefore, appointed a committee to study the question and gather data on the subject. The board feels that in view of the large surplus reserves now held by the banks throughout the country, there should be no difficulty, so far as the financial ability of the country is concerned, in providing for necessary advances upon that part of the crop which will eventually be shipped abroad. It appears from data in hand that the demand for our domestic manufactures of cotton goods is increasing, and it seems to the board's committee that there is no occasion whatever for a depression in the price of raw cotton such as was experienced last fall. The committee believes that arrangements should be made to assure producers of cotton of the co-operation of merchants and bankers in the proper handling of the crop.

South's Warehouse Capacity.

"In this connection attention is called to the estimate by the department of agriculture that the south now has a warehouse capacity of 9,664,000 bales. If proper use is made of this capacity and of the loanable resources of the banks, including both members and non-members of the federal reserve system, a gradual marketing of the crop will be entirely possible and any danger of a repetition of last year's conditions will be averted.

"The writer, as chairman of the board's committee, would be glad to have your views on this subject and is anxious to secure your co-operation in formulating plans to reassure and protect the farmers, merchants and others interested in our cotton growing industry."

For Strict Sobriety On Part of Members House Takes Stand

The members of the house of representatives of the state of Georgia will have to be careful how they zigzag up the aisles, get too hilarious or nod in their seats, for the doorkeeper may become suspicious and try to oust them for being intoxicated.

The doorkeeper has special instructions to be diligent and zealous in keeping off the floor of the house any member who may have taken too much booze.

Friday morning the house adopted a new rule and marked it down in the rule book as No. 25, and No. 25 reads:

"No member shall be permitted on the floor of the house while in an intoxicated condition, and the doorkeeper is directed to keep a close watch and eject any member who is intoxicated."

"Who are they hitting at?" was the first question that floated around, but the assurance was given that the rule was entirely impersonal and no reflections meant.

Professor W. F. Dykes, Principal of the Boys' High School, Proposed for Supervisor Under This New System.

MRS. WISE IS SLATED FOR POSITION AS HEAD OF COMMERCIAL SCHOOL

Teachers' Committee of the Board of Education Unanimously Adopts Resolution of James L. Key Providing for These Changes.

An important step toward the ultimate consolidation of the high schools of Atlanta into one great central university high school was taken Friday morning when the teachers' committee of the board of education unanimously adopted a resolution by James L. Key to place all the high schools under one head—to be known as supervisor of high schools.

The resolution also carries with it the provision that the principal of the Boys' high school shall be designated to this position, but that he will continue as executive head of the Boys' high, relieved of many details in the management, which details of administration of this school will fall upon the assistant principal of this school.

This means that Mrs. Annie T. Wise, twenty-three years one of the strongest teachers in the high school department, and who initiated the English-Commercial High School for Girls, will be placed at the head of the consolidated commercial high school for boys and girls that has been approved and the building for which is now in course of erection on South Pryor street

Have Plastic System.

"By co-ordinating the four high schools—the Boys' high, under Professor Dykes; the Tech high, under Professor Culver; the Girls' high, under Miss Muse, and the consolidated commercial high for boys and girls, under Mrs. Wise, we will have a more plastic system which is certain to work for a more efficient system," said Mr. Key, outlining the plan.

"Under the old regime the four high schools were drifting apart one from the other, courses of study were taught in one that were not taught in the other, their policies were different and the board of education allowed the principals to map out their individual programs. Under the proposed new system the supervisor will work to make the activities of one school dovetail one into the other, and only in that manner can we hope to get more system in the high school department."

The board of education has gone on record as favoring the plan to ultimately consolidate all of the high schools into one great central high school, and the consolidation this year of the commercial branches—the English Commercial and Boys' high—was the first step to be taken.

"There will be much preliminary work to be done in working out the big central idea of consolidation and by co-ordinating the high schools this year and reorganizing some of the courses of study an important step will have been made," said Mr. Key.

"If allowed to continue as formerly the high schools would drift further apart, with the result that the consolidation would be delayed. We can do much of the fundamental and preliminary work right now and at the same time greatly increase the efficiency of the high school department."

Indorses Key Plan.

Superintendent L. M. Landrum told the committee Thursday that he heart-

OUTBREAK OF FEUD FEARED AT PROBE OF RIVER MURDER

Lawyer Engaged by Relatives of Slain Men to Investigate Crime Warned by Anonymous Letter.

INQUEST PREVENTED BY FLOOD ON RIVER

Lawyer Walter McKinney Seeks Protection of Judge Gilbert—Inquest Is Postponed Until Monday.

By BRITT CRAIG,
Special Staff Correspondent.

Blanton's Ferry, Ala., via West Point, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—The intensity of the situation developed along the Georgia-Alabama frontier by the triple tragedy of Epps and Max Melton and Johnny Leake is, perhaps, more adequately explained by the appeal to be made by Walter McKinney, attorney, engaged by citizens and families of the slain men to investigate the mysterious murder, to Judge Price Gilbert, of the Chattahoochee circuit, of Columbus, to provide means of protection against and prevention of feud uprisings.

An effort was made by McKinney to get Judge Gilbert over long distance this afternoon, but the judge was not accessible. As a result the probe of the mystery is at a standstill. The inquest has been postponed until 9 o'clock Monday morning, following a series of exciting events at the river boundary this morning when two crowds gathered to hold the proposed session.

A new and equally mystifying angle presented itself tonight when J. E. Johnson, mayor of West Point, stated to The Constitution correspondent that he had talked with residents of Mountain View and Fortson—two wayside communities along the Columbus route taken by the autoists Sunday—and that witnesses are available who will testify that the Hargett brothers and Johnny Lands, in the latter's car, reached Fortson Sunday afternoon with the Melton boys on the return trip from Columbus.

Mr. Johnson, who is a native of Harris county, in which live the Hargett brothers, Lands and Teal family, stated that he had also talked with one of the Hargett brothers since the discovery of the body. He asserted that witnesses along the roadway had told him that the Epps brothers and Leake had voluntarily departed from the machine near Fortson, and that Lands and the Hargetts continued in the car toward West Point without the three slain men.

Another significant feature of Mr. Johnson's statement was that the car which carried the sextet on the pleasure trip to Columbus passed through the vicinity in which the Manse Teal family lived. Fortson, the community where it was said the Melton boys and Leake left the car, is only 3 miles from Blanton's Ferry, the scene of the third body's discovery.

Anonymous Warning Sent.

McKinney stated tonight that he received an anonymous letter Thursday warning him to stay away from Blanton's Ferry, and not to attempt any further participation in the inquest.

The turbulence of the river, which destroyed the ferry and made navigation extremely perilous, forestalled possible trouble between the two clans this morning when they would have met had the inquest been held. The father of the Melton brothers and the brothers of Johnny Leake, Doss and Jim Leake, were gathered at the river, with friends, eager for the proceedings.

"It is fear of feud trouble, not personal violence," said Mr. McKinney.

TROOP TRANSPORT SUNK BY BRITISH SUBMARINE; NAVAL BATTLE IN BALTIC

GERMAN WARSHIPS LOSE TO RUSSIAN SQUADRON

In Battle Off the East Coast of the Island of Gothland the German Ships Were Roughly Handled—Two Sent to the Bottom and Others Badly Damaged.

London, July 3.—(1:55 a. m.)—A British submarine in the Sea of Marmora, on June 26, sank the Turkish transport, No. 42, which was full of troops, according to the Athens correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company.

RUSSIANS WIN NAVAL BATTLE.

London, July 2.—Dispatches from Stockholm and Copenhagen give meager reports of a naval engagement in the Baltic sea off the east coast of the Island of Gothland. Several warships are said to have been engaged. A message from Copenhagen states that the German battleship Wittelsbach, which was damaged in the action, and a battleship of the kaiser class, with many shots under her waterline, have returned to Kiel.

Another report of the action states that the German mine layer Albatross was chased by four Russian cruisers and ran aground to escape capture. Twenty-one of the mine layer's crew were killed and twenty-seven wounded.

It is stated that a German torpedo boat has arrived at Katthammersvik, on the east coast of Gothland, with many wounded.

Copenhagen, July 2.—(Via London, July 3, 3:15 a. m.)—The Politiken's Petrograd correspondent states that it is reported that not only was a German torpedo boat sunk at Windau, but that a cruiser of the Madgeburg type also was lost.

The battleship Wittlesbach is of 11,830 tons displacement. Her complement in peace times is 650 officers and men. Her armament consists of four 9 4-inch and 18 6-inch guns. She was placed in service in 1902.

The battleships of the Kaiser class each have a displacement of 10,790 tons and a complement of 658 officers and men. The armament of this consists of four 9 4-inch and 14 6-inch guns.

Vessels of the Magdeburg (Breslau) class have a displacement of 4,550 tons. They have a compliment of 370 officers and men. They are armed with 12 4.1-inch guns and two torpedo tubes.

Appeal of Mother Keeps Drug Victim From the Stockade

Her boy had been tried and convicted and the chaingang was staring him in the face. So she had come unbidden before the judge to plead with tearful eyes and choking voice for the one thing for which she lived in life.

There are few formalities in Recorder Johnson's police court. What he wants are the facts, and when Mrs. Dyson appeared before him Friday afternoon to plead for her son, the recorder gave her a kindly welcome and heard her story.

"You've got Jack, my boy, my heart," she cried out, "behind those bars. I have no money with which to pay him out. If he goes to the chaingang you will murder me."

Jack Dyson had been convicted of selling cocaine in order to buy enough of the drug for his own use. He was another of those weak and unfortunate drug victims. The recorder fined him $10.75, which meant twenty-one days in the city chaingang.

The mother's plea had its effect and the recorder said he would hold him for vagrancy and have him sent for twelve months to the state farm to be treated for the drug habit.

"I am willing for him to go there if it will save him," Mrs. Dyson said. "It will be like burying him in a grave, for he has never been away from me since the days when I held a babe in my arms. He is my heart, my very soul, Judge Johnson."

They led her away weeping and the last mother's cry was, when the courtroom doors closed on her:

"Poor Jack. Poor Jack."

GRAVE OF MARY PHAGAN MARKED BY VETERANS

Marietta, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—A marble slab marking the grave of Mary Phagan and placed by the Marietta camp, No. 763, United Confederate Veterans, was unveiled today in the presence of a crowd estimated at 500. J. G. Morris, commander of the camp, acted as master of ceremonies. There were a number of talks.

TEUTONS HAMMER AT THE RUSSIANS AS THEY RETREAT

Austro-Germans Continue Their Fierce Drive in Galicia and in Poland, and the End Is Not in Sight.

GERMANS ALSO THRUST ON THE WESTERN FRONT

They Are Striking at the French Lines at Several Points—Paris, However, Claims the Attacks Have Been Repulsed.

London, July 2.—The sudden resumption of heavy artillery fire by the Germans in France is a marked feature of the fighting on the western front, while the Austro-German advance in Galicia and Poland is unchecked and the Teutons have shown no disposition to diminish the intensity of their eastern offensive.

The Polish fortress of Zamosc has been captured and Berlin claims advances in other sectors of strategic importance in the east. For weeks it has been the same story in this theater—an Austro-German rush, a Russian retreat—and the end is not in sight.

HEIGHTS TAKEN BY TEUTONS.

The Austro-German forces have reached the Russian positions at Krasnik, in southern Russian Poland, according to Berlin. In Galicia, after storming the heights southeast of Bukaszowice, north of Halicz, the Russians along the entire front from the district of Maryampol to just north of Firjilow, have been obliged to retreat and are being pursued by the Teutonic troops.

In the western theater, the French admit the success of a German movement in the Vosges to gain a foothold in their works on Hilgenfirst, but claim that through a counter attack all the positions were recaptured. The Germans are continuing to shell these positions violently. A Berlin statement says that northwest of Lefour de Paris the Germans advanced by storm over a front 3 miles long and between 200 and 300 yards wide.

BRITONS AWAKE TO SITUATION.

There are manifold indications throughout the United Kingdom that the people only now, after nearly a year, fully sense the seriousness of the war. Only a few months ago the boast was "business is as usual." Theater patronage was undiminished and the restaurant trade normal. The cabinet ministers now are urging the necessity of the most rigid economy by individuals, and school children are being besought to invest in the war loan. The newspapers daily are carrying full page advertisements of the war loan.

Teutonic successes in Galicia, the slowness of the Dardanelles operations and the failure of the allies to inaugurate the much discussed offensive in the west are responsible for this change in public demeanor.

RUSSIANS DRIVEN FROM POSITIONS.

along the Gnila Lipa from Firjilow southward, according to an official statement given out tonight by the Austrian war office. The statement follows:

"After many days of bitter fighting General von Linsingen's army has driven the Russians from their strong positions along the Gnila Lipa southward from Firjilow. The enemy is retreating eastward and is pursued along the whole front. The enemy has suffered heavy losses, 7,065 men and eighteen machine guns being captured.

"Northward the fighting continues. On the Dniester nothing of importance has occurred. In Russian Poland, on the Vistula and the Bug, we are combatting a strong Russian force and also on the Por and Brok and Wyznic sectors. Our armies are attacking everywhere.

"Westward from the Vistula river we attacked hostile positions north of Tarlow this afternoon, subsequently progressing within storming distance of other parts of the front and at night entered Russian positions; the enemy fleeing. Pursuing the Russians, we captured Josefow, on the Vistula. The Russians were also repulsed from positions southeast of Sienno, where we captured 700 men.

"In the Italian war theater, the Italians attacked on the plateau Debeado repeatedly. After preparation by heavy guns for several hours, they launched infantry attacks between Sarcaussina and Vermigliano, which we repulsed with heavy loss. Feeble attacks against the bridgehead in the Gorz region and at Krn were repulsed, our troops maintaining their positions. Artillery fighting continues."

RUSSIANS REPORT HARD FIGHTING.

Petrograd, July 2.—(Via London, July 3, 1:32 a. m.)—The following official war office statement was given out here tonight:

"On June 30 north of Przasnysz and the following night in the Shavli and the Racionz regions we repulsed local German attacks. On the left bank of the Vistula the enemy on Thursday delivered barren attacks on the front Sienno-Josefow. In the direction of Lublin the enemy is in contact with us along the Rivers Wysznica and Por.

"Between the Vieprz and Bug rivers the enemy continues to progress towards the north and northeast.

"In the region north of Zamosc on Thursday there was a stubborn rear guard fighting. A regiment of Prussian guards, which had seized the village of Jourkoff, was dislodged by our counter attacks.

"On the Sokal-Halicz front the enemy on Wednesday and all of Thursday morning delivered numerous attacks, most of which were repulsed, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. During our counter attacks we took over 2,000 prisoners and captured several machine guns. Nevertheless, south of Rohatyn important enemy forces succeeded Thursday evening in establishing themselves on the left bank of the Gnila Lipa.

"There is no change on the Dniester river."

TEUTON FORCES STILL ADVANCE.

Berlin, July 2.—(Via London.)—The German forces have reached the Russian positions at Krasnik, in the southern district of Russian Poland, according to the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters. The statement also says that the Russian forces in the region west of Zamosc have been driven back.

The statement follows:

"Western theater:

"A night attack on our positions west of Souchez was beaten off.

"In the western portion of the Argonnes a part of the army under the crown prince stormed a point of support. Northwest of Le Four de Paris we advanced by storm over a front five kilometers (3 miles) long and from 200 to 300 meters wide. This was carried out by the Wurttemburgian troops.

"Twenty-five officers and 1,710 men were made prisoners. Eighteen machine guns, 40 mine throwers and one revolver cannon were captured. The French losses were important.

"In the Vosges on Hilgenfirst we took an enemy work. Attempts by the enemy to recapture it were repulsed. Three officers and 149 men fell into our hands.

"Eastern theater:

"Southwest of Kalwarya after stubborn fighting, we took a mine position from the enemy and captured 600 Russians.

"Southeastern theater:

"After storming the heights southeast of Bukaszowice, north of Halicz, the Russians along the whole front from the district of Maryampol to just north of Firjilow have been obliged to retreat. Troops under General von Linsingen are pursuing the defeated enemy. Up to yesterday we had taken 7,765 prisoners, of whom eleven are officers. We also captured eighteen machine guns.

"The army of Field Marshal von Mackensen has driven back the enemy west of Zamosc after continuous fighting over the Labunka and Por sector and has crossed these rivers in part.

"Further to the west the enemy position on the line of Turobin-Krasnik-Jozefow the latter place on the Vistula has been reached. (Jozefow is a town on the Vistula, 25 miles north of Sandomierz. Krasnik lies 12 miles east of Jozefow and Turbin is 25 miles still further to the east). The forward positions at Stronza and Krasnik and these places themselves were occupied.

"To the west of the Vistula river the Russians under pressure of our attack evacuated their bridgehead positions near Tarlow. Both banks of the Kacienna are clear of the enemy.

"The troops under General von Woyrsch after successful fighting have driven the Russians out of their positions southeast of Ilenno and Ilza, where they took 700 prisoners of the grenadier corps.

FRENCH CHECK GERMAN DRIVE.

Paris, July 2.—Tonight's war office statement said:

"During Friday on the entire front from the Yser to the Argonne, there were nothing but artillery duels.

"In the Argonne the enemy, after a violent bombardment, attempted a new and general attack between the roads leading to Benarville and Blanleuil. After an especially stubborn fight which at certain points developed into a hand-to-hand encounter we held all our positions.

"Yesterday evening the Germans after intense artillery preparation, attempted on our position, on Hilgenfirst (in the Vosges) a series of attacks, the first two of which were repulsed. In the course of the third attack the enemy gained a foothold in our works. Through a counter-attack we recaptured, this morning, all our positions, which the Germans are continuing to shell violently.

"In the Dardanelles after the successes gained by the British troops on June 28, the Turks attempted violent counter-attacks. They were repulsed with heavy losses.

"On June 30 we carried a Turkish redoubt in the form of a quadrilateral, including six successive lines of trenches. The ground is covered with dead Turkish soldiers. We have not been counter-attacked."

SUMTER COUNTY'S FUNDS TIED UP IN TREASURY

Americus, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Sumter county's funds are tied up tightly in the treasury and not a bit can be paid because the commission of the recently appointed county treasurer, James Bynum, has not been issued by the governor, though filed last week. Jurors serving in court this week went home tonight unpaid as no one is authorized to pay bills under existing conditions.

FIVE VESSELS ARE SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINES

British Steamers Caucasian, Inglemoor and Welbury Among the Victims.

London, July 2.—Three British steamers, the Caucasian, Inglemoor and Welbury, the bark Sardozne and the schooner L. C. Tower were reported today to have been sunk by German submarines in the vicinity of the Scilly Islands and off South Ireland.

The Caucasian met her fate southwest of Lizard Head, on the coast of Cornwall, on Thursday morning. While engaged in picking up her crew the Inglemoor fell a victim to the same submarine.

Steamer Tried to Escape.

The Caucasian, when the submarine opened fire, was given full steam in an endeavor to escape. Not until the steamer was struck by several shots, one of which demolished the wheel, did her captain surrender. The crew then took to the boats. The submarine hauled alongside and fired eight shells into the vessel. A dog belonging to the captain of the Caucasion jumped overboard and the captain plunged from one of the boats into the rough sea and rescued his pet.

A few hours later the Inglmoor appeared on the scene and started picking up the Caucasian's boats. The Inglemoor had taken the occupants of the small boats on board when the submarine emerged and opened fire on her. Escape being hopeless, the crew took to the boats and the submarine then torpedoed and sank the Inglemoor, subsequently returning to the Caucasian, which was still floating, and sending her to the bottom.

The crew of the Inglemoor and a part of the crew of the Caucasian were landed at Penzance, but one of the Caucasian's boats, with nineteen men aboard, was being rowed toward France when last sighted.

The Welbury Sugar-Laden.

The commander of the submarine was delighted on learning that the steamer Welbury carried a cargo of sugar. After the ship left Cuba it was discovered that some one had painted inside the vessel's forehold the words:

"You have a cargo of sugar for England, but you will never get there."

The Inglemoor and Caucasian were sunk by the "U-39." This was the submarine which sank the Lusitania.

The skipper of the L. C. Tower reports that the submarine, after sinking two other sailing vessels, disguised herself with rigging, two dummy canvas funnels, two masts and a false bow and stern. These contrivances gave her the appearance of being a deeply-laden steamer with smoke issuing from her funnels.

CHAMBER BACKS APPEAL FOR BONDS FOR GRADY

The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce yesterday took action on the question of bonds for improvements at Grady hospital, shown to be so much needed in the statement given out by Superintendent W. B. Summerall, who resigned last Tuesday, but whose resignation was tabled pending further consideration by the board of trustees.

Colonel Robert J. Lowry, president of the Grady board of trustees, took the matter up with the chamber of commerce and the resolution favoring Grady bonds was immediately adopted. The resolution will be presented to city council.

In an interview with a Contsitution reporter, Colonel Lowry stated that at least $400,000 was needed at once for Grady hospital to relieve the present congestion there.

He stressed the need of a new annex building, where surplus patients might be housed in comfort.

THE MARTYRDOM OF HUSS

Dr. Lyons will speak Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church on the five hundredth anniversary of the burning of John Huss by the Council of Constance. A beautifully illustrated memorial program, including ancient Bohemian hymns, will be distributed and used.

Had Pellagra Seven Years; Thanks God He's Cured

Cowards, S. C.—David G. Pate, of this place, writes: "I am glad to say to you, after waiting forty days, that I still feel like I am cured of pellagra. I had this disease for the last seven years. The fourth day after beginning your medicine I went back to work and have been able to do my work ever since. I thank God for your remedy.

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't delay until it is too late. It is your duty to consult the resourceful Baughn.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea, either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope: get Baughn's big Free book on Pellagra and learn about the remedy for Pellagra that has at last been found. Address American Compounding Co., box 2003, Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—(adv.)

TURKS REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS

Another Success for Allies in Operations Against the Dardanelles — More Turk Trenches Are Taken.

London, July 2.—General Sir Ian Hamilton, commanding the allied land forces at the Dardanelles, in his second official dispatch of the week, records the repulse of a vicious counter attack by the Turks, who were bent on recovering lost ground south of the fortified hill of Achi Baba and the strong position at Krithia, which the British for some time have been attempting to envelop.

Counter Stroke by Turks.

The British forged forward last Monday and the following day, and the Turks, after sapping and mining, launched a counter stroke with the bayonet. This was crushed, while the French forces operating on the right in Kereyesdere valley toward the east coast of Gallipoli advanced and consolidated ground won the last of June.

Despite hard fighting ever since the landing on April 25, the Franco-British expedition only lately has achieved anything notable toward strengthening its hold on the tip of the Gallipoli peninsula. Achi Baba is a small Gibraltar, bristling with machine guns, surrounded by barbed wire and terraced with trenches. This is the reason why any allied progress is hailed with great satisfaction in England.

It is interesting to note the tributes to the Turks' bravery and even gallantry paid in almost every dispatch from British correspondents at the Dardanelles. At no time during the penisula fighting have the Turks been accused of atrocities.

Text of the Statement.

The full text of the statement follows:

"General Sir Ian Hamilton reports that on the afternoon of June 29 hostile columns moving west from North Achi Baba and south from Kilid Bahr toward the Turkish right flank indicated that the enemy was preparing for a counter attack against a position we captured on the previous day. During the evening two mine galleries in front of our right center was blown in, after which the enemy subjected the trenches to a heavy rifle and machine gun fire for two hours. After a lull and another outburst of fire a determined attack was made against the left of our position with the bayonet. This attack was repulsed with a heavy loss to the enemy.

"On the southern front the Turks made a concerted attack along the coast where H. M. S. Wolverine, a destroyer, got searchlights and guns on to the main body and caused a heavy loss.

French Take Trenches.

"To the east the attack was pressed closer under a heavy artillery fire, but finally was checked about forty yards from our parapet. Bomb attacks and intermittent shelling continued, but no further general attack was made and at 6:30 a. m. the French moved out and by 7::20 a. m. had taken a strong system of entrenchments immediately in front of the left center of the line called by them quadrilateral.

"A number of Turks were driven out of the trenches by the French bombardment and much execution was done during their retreat. Subsequently trenches adjacent to the quadrilateral to the south were captured after more serious fighting, thus completing the character of all of that port of the enemy's line required to round off the gains made by the French on June 21. The enemy's losses everywhere were considerable. The captured positions are being consolidated."

PORFIRIO DIAZ PASSES IN PARIS

maintained by friends who left Mexico with him.

No decision has been made concerning disposition of the body or the date of the funeral.

MASTER OF MEXICO FOR THIRTY-FIVE YEARS.

Porfirio Diaz was master of Mexico for thirty-five years. His overthrow was brought about by the Madero revolution and he left the country.

General Diaz was born in 1830. His family were of old Spanish stock, with an infusion of Indian blood. Left fatherless at the age of 3, he was educated at the expense of the Bishop of Caxaca with the intention of becoming a priest, but he eventually turned to law, and then at the outbreak of the war with the United States returned to a military career. He served throughout that struggle in a militia company which he helped organize, and after peace was declared he made a special study of military science. He and one other were the only two in the country who dared openly oppose the continuation of Santa Anna's dictatorship. His execution was ordered, but he escaped and joined Herrera's revolt. He speedily made a reputation as a soldier, and as a brigadier general he was the chief thorn in the side of the French forces, when, taking advantage of the civil war in the United States, they attempted to place Archduke Maximilian of Austria on the throne of a Mexican empire. Diaz harrassed the enemy constantly, and in June, 1867, captured Mexico City with his forces. On the re-establishment of the republic he was unsuccessful as a candidate for president, but in 1877 he was elected to fill the unexpired term of the fugitive president, Lerdo. His last and eighth election was in July, 1910.

To Diaz was given credit for the advance of Mexico to the status of a stable, progressive and prosperous government, although the autocratic methods he employed were widely criticised.

El Paso, Texas, July 2.—General Victoriano Huerta, selected by Porfirio Diaz to command the guard that escorted him from his capital to Vera Cruz when he left Mexico, sent this message of condolence tonight to Mrs. Diaz:

"My family, those sons of Mexico who are about me and I lament the news published in the papers today. The death of President Diaz has removed one of the greatest men the republic has produced."

Huerta appeared deeply affected. He was the last man to order fired a national salute to Diaz and the official playing of the national hymn. These orders were given at Vera Cruz when Diaz went aboard the steamer Ypiranga. Earlier in the day he and Diaz had embraced each other in the presence of the troops and Diaz assured Huerta that while he could see little that was bright in the future, the hope of Mexico rested on the national army.

Censor Arthur Goes Back to Patrol Duty; McKibben Gets Place

Special Officer Ed L. Arthur, police theatrical censor, will lose his job as a member of Recorder George E. Johnson's personal staff of workers.

Officer Arthur is to be supplanted by Plainclothes Policeman J. A. McKibben, who has been on special duty in the chief of police's office. This change is to take effect next Monday, when Special Officer Arthur will report for patrol duty.

Chief Beavers and Chief of Detectives Newport Lanford have jointly agreed upon Police Sergeant R. P. Burnett, recently made a sergeant by the police board, as their choice for the new position of sergeant of detectives.

Sergeant Burnett's appointment will be subject to the approval of the board of police commissioners when they hold their monthly meeting next Tuesday night.

Chief Beavers has issued a special order to his patrolmen requiring them to be diligent in their watch over locker clubs of the city, auto drivers who violate the speed laws and lewd characters on their beats.

FULL TIME IS ORDERED FOR M. & O. CAR SHOPS

Mobile, Ala., July 2.—The car departments of the various repair shops on the Mobile and Ohio system from Mobile and St. Louis began working on a nine-hour day schedule today. The order affects nearly 1,000 men and increases the pay rolls at Whistler, Ala.; Jackson, Tenn., and Murphysboro, Ill.

BECKER INNOCENT, DECLARES WEBBER

Attorney Marshall Says "Bridgie" Admitted Perjury, and Said Becker Had Nothing to Do With the Rosenthal Murder.

Passaic, N. J., July 2.—Bridgie Webber, at his home here tonight, denied that he had given H. T. Marshall, his former attorney, any information regarding Charles Becker. "I told my whole story at the two trials," said Webber, "and I am through with the whole thing."

New York, July 2.—That Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant in Sing Sing prison under sentence of death for conspiring to kill Herman Rosenthal, had absolutely nothing to do with the murder, was the statement made here today by H. T. Marshall, an attorney, as coming from his client, Bridgie Webber, one of the three self-conressed accomplices in the plot.

This followed closely on the heels of a story that Sam Schepps, the gambler on whom the state relied at the first Becker trial to corroborate testimony of Jack Rose, Harry Vallon and Bridgie Webber, the three informers, held "the secret in the Becker case," and would tell Governor Whitman, had the governor asked him to.

Other developments in the case followed in rapid succession. These were that Marshall intends to go before Chief Justice Bartlett, of the court of appeals, who wrote the prevailing opinion denying Becker a new trial, and explain to him the facts relating to Webber, and also the statement from Martin T. Manton, counsel for Becker, that W. Bourke Cockran, his law partner, is going to make an appeal to the United States supreme court in Becker's behalf, basing it on the theory that Becker was not convicted by due process of law.

Webber Admitted Perjury.

"Webber,' said Marshall, "told me as his counsel at the first trial that Becker had absolutely nothing to do with the murder of Rosenthal. Webber said that he and the others were perjuring themselves to save their skins."

Marshall said that he then told Webber to get another lawyer and that from that time he could not speak because of professional obligations.

"But had I not been convinced of Becker's innocence," continued Mr. Marshall, "I would not have aligned myself with the lawyers in his defense at the second trial. I never would have entered the case had I not known from what Bridgie Webber told me that Becker was deliberately 'framed up' by Webber, Harry Vallon, Jack Rose and Sam Schepps."

"I know I am now putting myself in the position as being haled before the appellate division," Marshall added, "but it makes no difference to me. A man's life is at stake, and if what I have just told will help save the prisoner's life, I am willing to take the chances."

Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court.

Martin T. Manton, in making the announcement that W. Bourke Cockran plans to appeal to the United States supreme court, said the appeal would be based on newspaper articles published prior to the trial, to the refusal of the application for a change of venue without a hearing and the extraordinary position of Governor Whitman at the present time, since he was instrumental in convicting Becker and is now the only one in position to save him. Becker, Manton said, is unable to exercise his constitutional right to have his case fairly passed on by an impartial reviewer.

Manton declined to discuss a report that Becker was prepared to reveal a story that six other men shared in whatever funds he is reported to have collected while a police officer. He made it plain, however, that Becker was prepared to reveal an interesting story and that Becker's reason for doing so was not so much to save himself as to prevent others from falling into a situation similar to that which he now faces.

GOVERNOR KEEPS NEGRO FROM SOUTH CAROLINA

Pennsylvania Executive's Action Is Based on Fear of Lynching.

Philadelphia, July 2.—Governor Brumbaugh, it was learned today, has withdrawn a requisition warrant issued by Governor Tener, in 1913, for Fred Brown, a negro wanted in South Carolina on a charge of murder. Representations were made to the governor that the prisoner would be in danger of lynching if returned to the southern state.

Counsel for Brown has made extraordinary efforts to keep him out of South Carolina. In support of their plea that he would be in danger of lynching they quoted public utterances of Cole Blease, then governor of South Carolina. A requisition was issued, however, by Governor Tener, and Brown's counsel carried the case to the United States supreme court, which sustained the lower courts in refusing to interfere.

In asking withdrawal of the requisition by Governor Brumbaugh, counsel cited incidents in connection with the Frank case in Georgia and a recent lynching in South Carolia. A hearing in the case will be given by Governor Brumbaugh next week.

Columbia, S. C., July 2.—Fred Brown, alias Joe Grant, was indicted in the South Carolina courts for the alleged murder of J. F. Durst, a white man, at Johnston, on April 14, 1906.

Attorney General Peoples today telegraphed a request to the attorney general of Pennsylvania asking that he arrange a hearing before Governor Brumbaugh when arguments will be submitted for this state relative to the withdrawal by the Pennsylvania governor of the requisition warrant for the return to South Carolina of Fred Brown, a negro wanted at Lexington, S. C., for murder.

Later today Governor Brumbaugh, of Pennsylvania, telegraphed Governor Manning that a hearing on the Fred Brown case would be held at Harrisburg on July 7.

BISHOP NELSON WILL PREACH AT CATHEDRAL

Sunday, July 4, being the fifth Sunday after Trinity, there will be special services at St. Philip's Cathedral on that day. Bishop C. K. Nelson will occupy the pulpit at the 11 o'clock service.

PAID HIS OPPONENT $1,000 TO QUIT RACE

Charge Made Against Judge Purifoy, of Alabama—Purifoy Declines to Talk.

Montgomery, Ala., July 2.—Judge John Purifoy paid James H. Nunnelee $1,000 in consideration of the latter's withdrawal from the race for secretary of state in the recent primaries, it was testified to today before the legislative investigation committee.

The charges were made by Bradley Brown, of Birmingham, former automobile license collector in Jefferson county. His testimony was substantiated before the committee by W. P. Fonville, clerk of the office of the secretary of state, and John Chapman, clerk of the state auditor's office. Both witnesses swore they were present when the money, in currency, was passed.

Judge Purifoy, summoned before the committee, claimed privilege of his constitutional rights and declined to answer any questions put to him by the investigators. Mr. Nunnelee was not before the committee today. Impeachment proceedings most likely will be instituted, officials stated this afternoon.

MRS. BOWDON'S TRIP ENDS IN SURPRISE

Calls Attention of Alabama, Georgia and Florida People to Natural Product.

"I have just returned from a trip to Georgia," states Mrs. M. S. Bowdon, of 5902 First avenue, Birmingham, Ala., "and when I arrived my friends could not believe it was me, I had improved so wonderfully.

"This statement I want my friends throughout Florida, Georgia and Alabama to read, as I have a large acquaintance in these states. In justice to Vitalitas and my friends, who suffer stomach, kidney and bladder trouble, I heartily recommend Vitalitas to do the work. For two years I have been a sufferer from the above diseases. Nine weeks of this time I was unable to get out of the house and friends suggested to me to try Vitalitas. I am thankful to state that I took their advice, for I feel that I am completely made over. I can eat vegetables, any kind of meat, and, in fact, anything my fancy desires. I consider Vitalitas one of the grandest remedies, in a class to itself, and heartily recommend its use to all who suffer stomach, kidney and bladder trouble."

Vitalitas is truly Nature's most wonderful corrective and tonic. It is bringing new health and happiness to many who had despaired of finding earthly relief. It is all good and it should be in every home. See the display and sample Vitalitas at Jacobs' Pharmacy, 23 Whitehall, or write there for information.—(adv.)

FACTS not Fiction

¶ Just when hops were first used in the brewing of beer cannot be historically proven. The ancients used aromatics of some sort and even honey with barley brews.

¶ St. Hildegard, Abbess of the Benedictine nunnery, Rupertusberg, near Bengen-on-Rhine, in her book on Natural History "Physica Sacra" writes in "De Hoppo":

"The hop when added to beverages prevents in the later putrefaction and gives to them a longer durability."

¶ The Saint also states that "the beer does not do any harm."

"It's Wiedemann's"

¶ Is another way to say "it's wholesome" because of its scientific brewing with the best of Bohemian and Bavarian hops.

Small-Gilliam.

A recent event that will be of unusual interest to a wide circle of friends, both in Atlanta and elsewhere, is the marriage of Mrs. J. Brotherton Small to Mr. W. F. Gilliam, of South Carolina.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. H. Brotherton, 235 South Forsyth street, July 1, at 4 o'clock. Only a few friends and immediate family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Luke Johnson, of Grace church.

Mrs. Small is the daughter of the late Captain W. H. Brotherton, who for years was an able leader of Atlanta's business and political life.

Daniel-Stafford.

One of the prettiest of the midsummer weddings will be that of Miss Maude Daniel and Mr. I. B. Stafford, of Chicago, which will take place next Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock at West End Baptist church.

Miss Lucile Daniel will be her sister's maid of honor; Misses Gertrude Beckham, Maev Richardson, Cecil Beckham, Nora Goodman, bridesmaids; Mr. Kirby Houghton, best man; Miss Rachel Spratling, ring-bearer; Messrs. W. B. Wallace, O. Whitmeyer, F. Bethea and T. M. Peteet, groomsmen.

Dr. John F. Purser will officiate, and Mr. Stafford and his bride will leave after the ceremony for a wedding trip. They will make their home in Chicago.

To Miss Daniel.

In compliment to Miss Maude Daniel, Misses Gertrude and Cecil Beckham will entertain at bridge Tuesday morning. Miss Maev Richardson will give a bridge party Wednesday morning, Mrs. A. P. Rice will entertain at afternoon tea at the Georgian Terrace Wednesday.

Moncrief-Scruby.

Interesting among the weddings of this month will be that of Miss Lallah Moncrief and Mr. George Earle Scruby, formerly of Grand Rapids, which will take place on the evening of the 14th at the bride's home on Alta avenue.

Miss Thelma Moncrief will be maid of honor; Mrs. Norman P. Pollitt, matron of honor; Miss Lucile Johnson, bridesmaid; Dr. G. Fleming Spearman, best man; Misses Isabel Frye and Florence Moncrief, of LaGrange, ribbon-bearer; Mr. Harvey W. Orr, groomsman.

Mr. Scruby and his bride will go east on their wedding trip and will visit in Grand Rapids, returning in the early fall.

Mrs. Weldon's Luncheon.

Mrs. Frank Weldon entertained at a beautiful luncheon yesterday at the Capital City club in honor of Miss C. E. Mason, principal of the Castle school at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson. The centerpiece of the table was a basket filled with white and yellow roses. A big butterfly bow of yellow tulle was caught to the handle of the basket, and the silver candlesticks, which held yellow candles, unshaded, also had bows of yellow tulle. Other pretty details were in yellow and white, the school colors. The place cards were decorated with dainty figures of school girls. Invited to meet Miss Mason were Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Mrs. Samuel Evans, Mrs. Samuel Barnett, Mrs. William P. Nicolson, Mrs. James Boykin Robinson, Mrs. Maude Barker Cobb, Mrs. Arthur Powell, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, Mrs. Drury Powers, and Mrs. Arnold Broyles.

Dinner-Dance At Driving Club.

The dinner-dance will be an enjoyable event of the evening, for which a number of parties are being arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Dick will entertain in compliment to Senator and Mrs. Hardwick. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paine and Mrs. S. K. Dick, Jr., will complete the party.

Others entertaining will be Mr. and Mrs. Rogers W. Davis, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Ulric Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Adair, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Mikell.

Camp at Tea House.

By the courtesy of Mrs. George Harrington a summer camp for the Young Women's Christian Association of Atlanta has at last been made possible. The first week-end party was chaperoned by Miss Converse, and consisted of fourteen members of the S. I. S. P. club, a business women's organization of the Young Women's Christian association.

Welcome visitors at the camp were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Witham, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington.

Miss Lucretia Block, with the aid of her efficient gymnasium committee, made all the plans for the camp, and were present to welcome the first guests. Thanks are due Mrs. Hamilton Block and Mrs. Hugh Willet for helping to make the camp a great success.

The camp is beautifully situated on the river road, easily accessible to the city, yet with all the delights of country life at hand. Army cots are moved on the platform at night for those who like to sleep in the open. An open wood fire makes the great living room attractive on chilly evenings, and a Victrola, with many well-loved records, adds to the pleasure of the evening after the active recreations of the day.

The privileges of the camp are extended to all Young Women's Christian association members, and all arrangements for week-end parties or Monday to Saturday parties must be made by application at the office, 54½ Houston street.

Mrs. Myers Entertains.

Mrs. Lamont Myers entertained at progressive heart-dice at her home on Lakeview avenue Friday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Laura Martin, of Simpsonville, S. C., and her sister, Miss Vera Hogsed, of Toccoa, Ga.

Those present were the Misses Kathleen Florence, Mildred Florence, Vera Hogsed, Laura Martin, Vivian Clyburn, Allie Maxwell, Annie Hall, Inez Hall, Lila Parks, Daisy Deaton, Marjorie Ellis, Gladys Lane; Messrs. Harvey May, William Reeves, Walter Brannan, Joe Brown, Jack Willford, Herbert Aubrey, William Morgan, Charles Daniels, Cliff Brady, Lamont Myers and Mr. Williams.

Miss Martin wore an allover white net dress with a large bouquet of sweetpeas.

Miss Hogsed was dressed in a yellow chiffon taffeta and wore a bunch of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Myers was gowned in a black and white voile and wore a large bouquet of pink carnations.

The entire floor was thrown open to the guests. Punch was served in a bower of cut flowers. The ices were in harmony with the color scheme of yellow and white. Assisting in entertaining were Miss Marjorie Ellis and Miss Gladys Lane.

Simpson-Jones.

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends is that of Miss Frances Norfolk Simpson and Mr. Leroy Lucien Jones, of Lafayette, Ind., which will be solemnized on the evening of July 15, at the home of the bride, on Ashby street, West End.

The wedding will be one of elegant simplicity, witnessed only by the large family connection.

The bride will be attired in a traveling suit of dark blue silk poplin with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will leave immediately after the ceremony for a trip through the West, after which they will be at home at Lafayette, Ind., where Mr. Jones holds a chair in Perdue university.

At Capital City Club.

The Friday night dinner-dance last night at the Capital City club was a happily informal occasion, assembling a large company on the roof garden.

ECZEMA ON ARMS ITCHING BURNING

So Great Didn't Sleep Nights. Red, Inflamed and Swollen. In One Month

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"Our baby boy broke out with eczema when he was three weeks old. The arms were mostly affected by the trouble which took the form of a rash. The itching and burning were so great that he didn't sleep nights at all. His arms were very red, inflamed and swollen and he was so cross that I had to hold him most of the time. He would lie awake nights and keep me awake.

"This trouble continued about six weeks and a friend prescribed Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Relief was given at once and he was healed, sound and well in about one month." (Signed) Mrs. A. M. Hannah, Yelk, W. Va., Feb. 9, 1915.

FAKE ADVERTISEMENTS BARRED BY THIS BILL

Walter P. Andrews Introduces Measure Providing for Penalty for Infractions.

One of the most important measures to be considered by the state legislature is a bill introduced in the house yesterday morning by Representative Walter P. Andrews, of Fulton county, which prohibits the publication of misleading and untrue advertisements.

The bill is aimed at what is known as "fake" advertisements or advertisements which offer goods for sale that are not what they are represented to be, and hold out inducements that are misleading. It is to protect the people against spurious advertisers.

As the bill is of much importance and will probably be passed by the legislature, the full text is given:

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of Georgia, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That any person, firm, corporation or association of any employees thereof, who, in circular, newspaper or any other kind of publication, published in this state, or by any painted signs, posters or printed matter of any kind, knowingly makes or disseminates any statement or assertion of fact, concerning the quality, the quantity, the value, the method of production or manufacture, the reason of the price of his, hers, theirs or its merchandise, or the motive or purpose of the sale, intended to give the appearance of an offer advantageous to the purchaser, which is untrue, or calculated to mislead, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

"Sec. 2. Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid that any person, firm, corporation, or association or any employee thereof, who violates any of the provisions of this act, shall, upon conviction, be punished, as provided for in section 1065 of the criminal code of the state of Georgia, 1910."

PATRIOTIC COLORS FOR TRINITY CHURCH

Dr. Charles O. Jones will emphasize piety and patriotism on Sunday morning at Trinity church. He has appointed a committee of ladies to decorate the auditorium and Sunday school chapel in the national colors. Every member of the Sunday school will wear a small flag, and the Boy Scouts will attend in a body.

The large chorus of fifty voices, conducted by Charles A. Sheldon, Jr., choirmaster, will render some of the great patriotic anthems and lead the congregation in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America."

Dr. Jones will preach on "The Flag As a Religious Emblem." At 8 p. m. Trinity will unite with other Capitol Hill churches in the open air services on the lawn of the capitol.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN

In the Sunday school and in the morning at the Central Presbyterian church special services will be held tomorrow. The subject of Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden's sermon will be "America's Opportunity and Obligation." There will be special music.

In the evening this congregation will unite with the other churches around the capitol in an open-air service.

FRATERNAL AID UNION CONVENTION NOW OVER

Delegates Are Delightfully Entertained During Stay in Atlanta.

Delegates from Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and South Carolina attending the district convention of the Fraternal Aid Union meeting Thursday at the Red Men's wigwam, wound up their convention here Thursday night and departed for their homes after adopting resolutions thanking their hosts for entertainment while in Atlanta and selecting delegates to attend the supreme lodge meeting of the order at Pasadena, Cal., July 27.

At the main business session of the meeting delegates were chosen to go to the meeting at Pasadena. They were: Charles C. Gillett and John Y. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga.; George Latham, of Gainesville, Ga.; Judge A. M. Douglas, of Birmingham, Ala.; Captain E. J. Grove, of Mobile, Ala.; W. L. Pollard, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Dr. J. H. Liebkemann, of Memphis, Tenn.; W. O. McDonald, of Charleston, S. C.; Marion Nelson, of Rock Hill, S. C.; Dr. N. Wooldridge, of Tampa, Fla., and John C. Park, of Key West, Fla.

The delegates who attend the meeting of the grand lodge will be in California three days while the meeting is in session, and later many side trips and tours of interest have been planned for them.

Following the executive session of the convention Thursday morning, there was a luncheon at the Winecoff hotel. In the afternoon the delegates were taken on an automobile ride to points of interest, and the meeting closed with a banquet at the Winecoff.

GELDERT WILL ENTER PUBLICITY BUSINESS

Louis N. Geldert, a former newspaperman, has returned to Atlanta after spending several years in the east and north. He will establish a new advertising and writing service bureau at 505 Grant building. Mr. Geldert will give particular attention to the general advertising business, especially the designing and writing of booklets and trade letters. Mr. Geldert was formerly editor and publisher of The Insurance Herald of Atlanta.

"SERVANT IN HOUSE" TO BE SERMON TOPIC

"The Servant in the House," by Charles Kennedy, will be discussed by the pastor of Wesley Memorial church, at the evening service.

The sermon text for the morning service will be "Victorious Defeat."

What About Scandal?

CHURCHES TO HOLD OPEN-AIR MEETINGS ON CAPITOL STEPS

Six churches in the vicinity of the state capitol building will start a series of open-air meetings on the capitol steps the night of July 4. Those churches are Central Presbtyerian, Second Baptist, First Christian, St. Philip's Cathedral, Trinity and the German Lutheran church. A chorus made up of voices from the different churches, and a sixteen-piece orchestra will furnish the music. There will also be a special address by Rt. Rev. C. K. Nelson, bishop of Atlanta.

UNION GOSPEL SERVICE WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

On the beautiful lawn on North Boulevard, between Forrest and East avenues, there will be held union Sunday evening services, in which the Jackson Hill Baptist, Grace Methodist and Westminster Presbyterian churches will co-operate.

The pastors of these three churches—Rev. Luke G. Johnson, Rev. L. E. Barton and Rev. A. A. Little—will have charge of the services. Dr. Luke G. Johnson preaching tomorrow.

Everything will be distinctly informal at these meetings. The public and especially those living in the neighborhood are cordially invited to attend.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF MAY HAVE A NEW HOME

Directors Consider Plans to Move the State Institution From Cave Springs.

Plans to move the state institution for the deaf from Cave Springs to a point more centrally located in the state were considered by the board of directors of the institution at a called meeting, held at the Piedmont hotel on Friday, and a committee was appointed to investigate and make recommendations to the general assembly.

There were seven members of the board of trustees present, as well as a number of members of the legislature and friends of the institution.

It was pointed out at this meeting that of the approximately 500 deaf children in the state, but about 125 are able to take advantage of the institution, and that this condition is due largely to the inaccessibility of the school.

A number of locations were suggested at the meeting, including Atlanta, Macon, Griffin and Milledgeville.

The committee which was named to investigate conditions at the school and in connection with its accessibility is as follows:

Representatives Yeomans of Terrell, Ayer of Bibb, and Knight of Berrien, and Dr. William Bradford of Cedartown, and Dr. J. W. Taylor of Lutheisville, members of the board of trustees of the institution.

Dr. Quillian's Sermons.

Dr. J. W. Quillian, pastor of the St. Paul Methodist church, Sunday will preach morning and night. Subject of the morning sermon, "God Feeding the Hungry;" at night subject, "The Timid Christian."

Sewing Circle With Much Whispering

Before the stork arrives there is much to talk about. The comfort of the expectant mother is the chief topic. And there is sure to be someone who has used or knows of that splendid external help, "Mother's Friend." It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in and has a most pronounced effect as a lubricant. It soothes the network of nerves, enables the muscles to expand naturally, relieves strain on the ligaments and thus sets at ease any undue strain on the organs involved. And it does this with perfect safety. Expectant mothers thus go through the ordeal with comparative ease and comfort. Knowing mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" speak in glowing terms of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and a freedom from many other distresses.

You can get "Mother's Friend" at any drug store or they will gladly get it for you. Write today to Bradfield Regulator Co., 401 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a highly instructive book of great value to all expectant mothers. It contains a valuable expectancy chart, rules on diet and is brimful of suggestions that all women will appreciate.

INNOCENT OF CRIME, ASSERTS ED CHENEY, NOW HELD IN TOWER

Ed Cheney, ticket agent of the Central railroad at Carrollton, Ga., who was rushed to Atlanta from Carrollton Tuesday afternoon, following his arrest on a warrant that charged him with the murder of J. L. Guill, depot agent at the same place, in an interview with reporters at the Fulton Tower yesterday, denied that he was guilty of the murder.

"I am innocent," he told the newspaper men, "and there is no evidence to substantiate my arrest on so serious a charge.

"I do not want to talk about the case further than to say that I am shocked at my arrest."

Cheney has a wife and two children, and has been a highly esteemed resident of Carrollton for twenty years.

Guill, the depot agent, was mysteriously slain in the depot last Thursday night a week ago. William Guill, a son of the deceased, swore out the warrant against Cheney.

No Charge Against Cheney.

Carrollton, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—The coroner's jury, which was adjourned twice pending the investigation of the death of J. L. Guill, after hearing all the evidence, tonight returned a verdict finding that the death of Mr. Guill was produced by unknown hand.

This exonerates Mr. Cheney, who was arrested here yesterday, charged with the offense. No new developments have arisen in the case, and all reports as to what the evidence was against Cheney have proven false.

Elder Clawson Coming For Dedication Sunday Of New Mormon Church

Elder Rudger Clawson, member of the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the Mormon church, Salt Lake City, Utah, will be in Atlanta Sunday to assist in the dedication of their new church, recently completed at the corner of Woodward avenue and Connally street.

President Joseph F. Smith ordered that the Atlanta church be built when he visited this city over a year ago. The building is of brick and cost approximately $10,000.

The church will seat 400 people and has the distinction of being built entirely of Atlanta material and with Atlanta labor.

There will be meetings at the new church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7 in the evening.

NEGRO WOMAN IS HELD ON CHARGE OF ARSON

Ordered to move from her home on Litt Jones avenue, near the Boulevard, by Monday morning and the house burning down the Saturday previous, Clara Moore, a negro woman, was indicted by the grand jury yesterday morning and is now in the county jail on the charge of arson.

Clara was tried in the police court last week on the charge of conducting an assignation house at her home, and she was held in a $500 bond and ordered to move out by the following Monday. Saturday night her house was destroyed by fire.

The grand jury placed her arson bond at $1,000.

What made the case of unusual interest was that the woman conducted her alleged resort in one of the most respectable white neighborhoods in the city.

JENTZEN AGAIN HEADS SANITARY DEPARTMENT

Dr. Claude A. Smith and Dr. J. P. Kennedy Also Reappointed.

John Jentzen, fourteen years chief of the city sanitary department, was Friday re-elected for another term of two years by the board of health, which held the annual election of officers of the department of sanitation and health. The chief was highly commended by the board for his efficient work and the splendid work of his department for the past term. His election was unanimous.

JOHN JENTZEN.

Dr. J. P. Kennedy was re-elected without opposition to the position of city health officer, which he has held for twelve years

Dr. Claude A. Smith was re-elected unanimously as city bacteriologist and chemist. He has held this office ten years.

Moze Roberson was re-elected superintendent of the night sanitary crew, and was lauded by the board for the good work his department has done in keeping Atlanta clean.

Two city physicians, Dr. J. G. Wilkins and Dr. J. G. Hall, while working under the direction of the board, are not elective by the board. They will be re-elected, it is said, without opposition next Monday by general council.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield, recently chosen superintendent of Battle Hill Tuberculosis sanitarium, attended officially his last meeting of the board of health Friday. He expressed his regret at leaving that body, and asked their cooperation in his new work, which he will take up Monday.

Edward Mincey, member of the board from the sixth ward, was elected on motion of Councilman Claude Ashley to the office of vice president of the board to succeed Dr. Bradfield, who has held that office for the past year.

Dr. Bradfield's successor on the board from the second ward will be chosen Monday. At the same time general council will elect a successor to I. N. Brown, who recently resigned as a representative from the ninth ward.

A communication was read from C. W. Curry, of Douglas, Ariz., recently elected official fly-swatter for Atlanta, in which he said that arrangements were being made for the fly extermination campaign here, and that he would arrive shortly.

ACCIDENT IN BUFFALO KILLS DUNCAN DUBOSE

Washington, Ga., July 2.—(Special.) News has just been received in Washington of the tragic death of Duncan DuBose, the youngest son of Mrs. W. D. DuBose, of this city, which occurred in Buffalo, N. Y., in an automobile mix-up with a trolley car, which was brought about in the effort of Mr. DuBose's chauffeur to prevent running into a small boy on a bicycle. In the collision, Mr. DuBose was thrown from the automobile and his neck broken by the fall.

The body will arrive in Washington Saturday evening and the funeral will probably occur in Washington Sunday afternoon. Mr. DuBose was 23 years old and had been employed for some time by the Westinghouse Electric company. Besides his mother, Mr. DuBose is survived by two brothers and three sisters.

SHRINERS ARE HAVING GREAT TIME ON TRIP

One hundred and twenty Shriners, bound for the great conclave of their order in Seattle July 10-15, will leave on a special train over the Southern railway Monday morning, July 5, at 7 o'clock.

Fourteen members of the Atlanta Shrine left Atlanta June 29, intending to take in the Yellowstone National Park and other sights en route to Seattle. A letter received in Atlanta from W. A. Fuller, one of that party, states that so far the trip has been a great success.

W. S. HOWARD WILL SPEAK AT CARROLLTON TODAY

Carrollton, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Secretary John Matthews has received an acceptance from Congressman William Schley Howard to address the people here at the annual Fourth of July celebration, to be held tomorrow. Judge W. C. Adamson will introduce Mr. Howard, who is one of the best known members of the Georgia delegation in congress, and an orator of wide reputation.

Many other features will mark the day, the exercises commencing at 8:30 in the morning, when the Carrollton band will give a concert on the public square, following which everybody will leave for the fair grounds. After the ball game will come Congressman Howard's address and the dinner of Georgia barbecue, following which there will be an interesting round of funny stunts by the boy scouts of Carrollton and Bowdon. There will be horse racing in the afternoon, a number of fast horses having been entered.

GROOM HAD LICENSE FOR OVER FOUR YEARS

Athens, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—An unusual feature of the marriage at Winterville Wednesday evening of Mr. M. T. Mathews, a merchant of this place, and Miss Massie B. Garrison, of Union Point, was the fact that the license was issued February 4, 1911, and has been carried in the pocketbook of the groom for these four years and five months. The courthouse in which the license was issued has been discarded and a new one built, the ordinary who issued the license has been now dead some time. The pair were engaged for several years before the license was issued, it is said.

CITIZENS TO DISCUSS CLUBS AND SALOONS AT MEETING SUNDAY

To consider the question of locker clubs and near beer saloons now before the general council of the city a mass meeting of citizens of West End will be held Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock on the lawn at the rear of the Lee street school. Attorney R. W. Crenshaw will preside, and talks will be made by Attorney E. V. Carter, Rev. W. O. Foster and Councilman J. C. White, of the seventh ward. Special arrangements have been made, and the public is invited.

Beaten by the Husband And Fined by Recorder For Remark to Woman

"Come on, kid, leave that bum you are with and go with me."

That is what J. L. Dorsey said to Mrs. Benjamin Coggins near the Union passenger station Thursday afternoon.

It chanced that the so-called "bum" was Mr. Coggins, the husband of Mrs. Coggins, as Dorsey learned after he had had his face smashed by the angry husband.

Dorsey was arraigned in the police court Friday afternoon and both Mr. and Mrs. Coggins testified against him. Attorney Lamar Hill, representing the prosecution, said that since Dorsey had acknowledged his guilt and made all the apologies possible, Coggins did not wish the court to be too severe with him.

Dorsey admitted his guilt, and also his mistake about the "bum," and said he was drinking and did not know what he was doing.

He was let off with a fine of $10.75, which he paid.

Gresham and Moore Have Narrow Escape In Auto Accident

R. Irving Gresham, the popular manager of Dahl's Floral Shop, Candler building, and R. Jerome Moore, a well-known attorney with Evins, Spence & Moore, are today congratulating themselves on their narrow escape, as both nearly lost their lives when Mr. Gresham's automobile plunged into a ditch at the side of the road near East Point, Ga., about midnight Thursday, on their return from the home of some friends in the country.

The auto stuck fast in the mud, and Mr. Gresham narrowly escaped drowning when he was pinned beneath the steering wheel of the overturned car in a ditch of water. He managed to extricate himself, and the two men walked two miles into East Point, where they reported their accident to a town marshal.

Resolution Asking For End of Blockade Forwarded to Wilson

That President Wilson "take such steps as he may deem necessary and proper to induce Great Britain to withdraw her blockade of neutral ports" is the request embodied in a letter mailed yesterday to the nation's chief executive by a joint committee of the state senate and house.

The task of drafting and sending the letter was assigned to a committee appointed by order of a resolution passed by the legislature. This committee was composed of the following: Representatives Shuptrine of Chatham, Olive of Richmond, Strickland of Pearce, Kirby of Coweta, Taylor of Washington, and Senators Pickett, Peacock, Buchanan, McLaughlin and Fletcher. The resolution, which ordered the committee appointed to take this action, was introduced in the senate by Senator Peacock, and in the house by Representative Andrews.

WACOOCHEE VALLEY BOY IS KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Columbus, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Estes Pritchett, the 3-year-old son of J. L. Pritchett, of Wacoochee Valley, Alabama, was killed by lightning during the electrical storm that swept over that section yesterday evening. The boy was standing at a window when a bolt struck the house. Estes was instantly killed, and his 12-year-old brother, Paul, was badly shocked, but was resuscitated by a physician. The lightning killed a hen and eight chickens under the house.

LOCKER CLUB LICENSES VETOED BY WOODWARD

Council Will Take Action on 21 Organizations at the Meeting Monday.

Mayor Woodward Friday vetoed the five locker club licenses granted by general council Monday, and in doing so declared that the situation was like a horse race in which several of the horses got away ahead of the others and had to be put back at the post. He said he was acting as official starter, and wanted to give them all a chance to start together again Monday.

The five clubs whose licenses were vetoed were: Standard club, Turn Verein, Capital City, Transportation and University clubs. They will file new applications that will probably be acted on at a special meeting of the police committee Monday.

The prohibition forces are still hopeful of winning their fight on the clubs, but they lost Friday when the mayor signed 146 applications for near beer saloons, which means that the saloon question for this year at least is settled.

The mayor held up the license of five saloons which have pool rooms in connection with them and vetoed the license of the Hotel Ansley saloon, declaring that he would not approve of it because the hotel operates a rathskeller in which he says they serve drinks from the saloon. He also charged it sold beer to the rathskeller after closing hours.

Many of the saloons paid in their quarterly license taxes Friday when notified of the action of the mayor.

Since the police committee has reported favorably on sixteen of the locker club applications and is expected to take the same action on the five turned down by the mayor, an effort will probably be made to have them acted on at the same time by general council instead of separately. If acted on together it is believed all will be granted, but if acted on separately, it is said that two or possibly three will lose their licenses.

"I'M GOING TO LEAVE," HE TELLS RELATIVES AFTER FATAL DOSE

Waycross, Ga., July 2.—(Special.) Taking a dose of carbolic acid that cost him his life, W. I. Buford, aged 33, interested in Georgia and Florida sawmill enterprises, today informed his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. A. Stokes, immediately after he swallowed the acid, that he was leaving his wife and children to her.

"I'm going to leave," he said, "in two hours."

Despite every effort possible to counteract the effects of the acid, he was dead.

Buford purchased the acid this morning after he had breakfast and returned here. By a strange coincidence he bought the dose from the same store where another Florida man a few weeks ago purchased a dose that ended his life in a local hotel.

Continued ill health is given as the cause for the deed. Previously he had threatened to end his life. His wife and three children, one a babe two days' old, survive. His father is Joe Buford, a prominent resident at Hilliard, Fla. The remains will be taken to Hilliard, from which place he moved here a year ago, tomorrow for interment.

FITZGERALD IS READY FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Fitzgerald, Ga., July 2.—(Special.) This city is making great preparations for a celebration on Monday. The entire city of Abbeville and representatives from other cities as well are expected. Ocilla and Douglas intend to join the auto parade to Bowen's mill. It is expected that over a hundred cars will make the trip to Bowen's mill to meet Hon. W. T. Anderson and other highway boosters. Splendid entertainment features are planned for the entertainment of visitors, among them being baseball, motorcycle races, band concerts and a masked ball on the "white way."

ROBERT MADDOX SELLS LARGE TRACT OF LAND

Marion Harper Pays $25,000 for Twelve and Half Acres on Pace's Ferry Road.

Robert F. Maddox sold Friday through Roff Sims, real estate agent, a 12½-acre residence lot on the north side of Pace's Ferry road to Marion Harper, cotton oil official, for a consideration of $25,000 cash.

It is understood that Mr. Harper has plans for a handsome country home which he will erect on this property.

Mr. Harper is president of the Marion Harper Cotton Oil company and lives at East Point.

The lot is a part of "Woodhaven," the Maddox estate near Buckhead, adjoining the estate to the west. It has a frontage of 500 feet and a depth of 1,000 feet.

RECEIVERS WINDING UP CASE OF EXCHANGE BANK

Macon, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Holders of 500 shares of the stock of the defunct Exchange bank, which failed in Macon several years ago, today made settlement with the receivers of the bank on the basis of $29.36 a share. This was the amount fixed recently by Judge Mathews, in the superior court, and today was the last day on which stockholders could take advantage of it.

The suit brought by the receivers will now proceed against the remaining stockholders, who declined to settle. It is understood, however, that a majority of the stockholders who have not paid up are either dead or are insolvent.

The settlement of today brought $10,000 in the hands of the receivers. They hope to realize enough from the stockholders to finish paying the indebtedness of the bank.

NEEDED MORE THAN EVER.

Since Judge Charlton's decision in the superior court of Chatham county, holding the state automobile license tax law to be unconstitutional on the ground that the distribution of the fund is inequitable, there is more need than ever for legislative action regarding this fund of over $100,000, and the turning of it to some good and substantial account to the state.

Judge Charlton's decision has thrown serious doubt upon the law, but whether unconstitutional or not, the very attitude of the people, particularly owners of motor vehicles in certain sections of the state, toward it has stressed its inadvisability and lack of wisdom. It is not that any automobile owner objects to the payment of the $5 registration fee, but he naturally and justly opposes it when the bulk of it goes to some other community not to accomplish material good for the state or even the community itself, but to be frittered away—doing no good to anybody or anything.

We are distributing now more than $100,000 among 150 counties, an average of a little more than $600 to the county, in sums of $125 to $1,200, and in only a few instances slightly more. The best that any county can do with it is to repair a few holes in the roads. So far as real achievement is concerned, it is a dead loss to the state.

The Constitution has upon several occasions called this matter to public attention in the hope that some legislative action would be taken at this summer's session, looking to the direction of this fund into channels where it would accomplish the most good for the entire state. Without attempting to suggest details, we have proposed that it should be expended through a properly created and efficient state highway commission which would render service of a permanent and lasting kind to every county in Georgia. There have been introduced in the house several measures along this line.

There is not an automobilist in the state but would readily assent to this use of the specific tax thus imposed upon him. Every county in Georgia would welcome this disposition of the fund, and the state would have something substantial to show for it at the end of the year.

It makes no difference, so far as the merits of the problem are concerned, whether the state supreme court sustains or reverses Judge Charlton; the main issue is the expenditure of a fund of more than $100,000 so that the state will get something worth while out of it.

If Judge Charlton is sustained it kills the whole law and the legislature will have to begin de novo and, necessarily, find some disposition of the fund different from the present one. If he is reversed the same frittering away of the fund will continue, unless the legislature remedies its unquestioned error.

So far as this $100,000 and more is now concerned, it is worthless to the state. If it is to be made of substantial value or, for that matter, any value at all, the legislature must put it promptly where it will do considerably more good than it is doing now, or can ever do, under the present method of distribution.

THE CERTIFIED BABY.

The Indianapolis News says that childless married folk looking for an infant for adoption now require that the baby should be "certified" as to its mental and physical condition.

It is stated that Dr. William J. Hickson, of the psychophatic laboratory of the municipal court, Chicago, is the inventor of the certified baby, and The Indianapolis Medical Journal gives the following as the requirements:

At birth he should weigh at least six pounds; at one year about twenty-one pounds.

At birth he should measure twenty inches; his sister may be slightly shorter.

The first year he should increase seven inches; the second three more, and from the third to the tenth year two inches each year.

The fontanelle or soft spot on the head should close about the nineteenth month.

Three to Four and a Half Months—Grasp an object that is placed before him. Hold his head erect, alone.

Seven Months—Sit alone, unsupported, and reach for toys.

Eight to Ten Months—Start to creep. Some babies never creep, but start to walk instead.

Ten Months—Should start to stand, holding some object.

Eleven Months—Stand entirely alone.

Twelve to Fourteen Months—Start to walk.

One Year—Say mamma and papa.

Two Years—Talk quite plainly, know names of animals, persons, and objects, and put two words together.

Should distinguish one object from another at four months. He must hear well and his teeth must make their appearance at from five to seven months.

The baby measuring up to these standards is rated "Ideal"—Class A-1. But The Indianapolis News makes the suggestion that "the custodians of such certified babies demand like certificates from the foster parents."

A good sign of the times is that a fairly large per cent of babies come under the head of this highly certified class.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

The board of education is about to take another step forward in so organizing for the Atlanta University High school that when the plan for the erection of the great building materializes there will be no lost motion in bringing all the branches of the city's high schools under its roof—organized and ready for business.

At the meeting of the teachers' committee of the board yesterday a resolution of Mr. Key was unanimously adopted making the principal of the Boys' High school supervisor, ex-officio, of the several high school branches, each of which will have an independent head reporting direct to the high school supervisor, who will be the intermediary between the high schools and the superintendent and board.

Principal W. F. Dykes, of the Boys' High school, who has made a most creditable record in the service of the schools, will, while continuing to act as principal of the Boys' High school—though relieved of many details of the management—undoubtedly become supervisor of the high school department. His efficient service merits the promotion.

This means that Superintendent Landrum's selection of Miss Muse as the head of the Girls' Classical, Professor Culver at the head of the Technological, and Mrs. Wise at the head of the new combined Commercial will be ratified. Indeed, they have already been ratified by the board, the only doubt having been as to the Commercial High school. Mrs. Wise was confirmed as the head of the Girls' commercial department, with 500 students, before the Boys' Commercial, with 200 students, was consolidated with the other, the two to occupy the new building now being erected for the purpose on South Pryor street. It was suggested that the consolidation might make it necessary to put a man at the head of this school, but The Constitution's exposure of the absurdity of the theory has put an end to the proposal, and the selection of Professor Dykes as the head of all the high school branches will close the argument in favor of Mrs. Wise as the head of the coeducational commercial. It would be impossible to choose either in or out of Atlanta, man or woman, one who is more ideally equipped for this position than Mrs. Wise.

The unanimous action of the committee indicates a harmony that is refreshing and that bodes great good for the Atlanta public schools.

And there are statesmen who do not scorn a long green chautauqua course diploma.

Merely a case of restlessness with Huerta. His lawn mower didn't cover enough territory.

P.S. "WHAT DO WE CARE FOR THE WAR."

A Warm Weather Lyric.

It's "fight and never tire,
The devil is to blame!"
But fight him with the fire
An' he'll beat you at the game!

Raised where the blaze
Is a-burnin' all the days,
You'll never—never match him at the fire-fightin' ways!

Oh, it's "fight, and never tire!"
And still yer chance is slim;
But s'pose you turn from fires that burn
And aim the hose at him?

Turn and turn about,
Where the fire-fiends shout,
A better show you'd have, I know, to put the fire out!

"Killed in Action."

Norah Sheppard is the author of this touching war-lyric, in The Toronto Mail and Empire. It is called, "Killed in Action:"

"He was so young, O God!
The path where Youth and Manhood meet he trod,
And life was full of promise, rich and rare.
This blow which Thou hast dealt I scarce can bear;
O, help me, comfort me in my despair.

He was my only son!
I try, O God, to say, 'Thy will be done;'
But Thou, whose Son upon the Cross didst die—
Thou Who alone dost hear my bitter cry,
Canst know my grief and my heart's agony."

There's a Difference.

Says the paragrapher of The Memphis Commercial-Appeal:

"King George recalled the order of the Garter, bestowed on the kaiser, and the kaiser evened up by recalling the Black Eagle, bestowed on King G. But a black eagle doesn't hold up your socks, so there's a difference."

No War Fiend.

Here is the rather emphatic testimony of a peaceful toiler:

"I ain't got anything to tell
'Bout fightin' 'cross the foam,
I'm one that has to work like —l,
Dry weather, or a rainy spell,
For peace right here, at home."

Advice for the Fourth.

(From a Billville Philosopher.)

Fourth o' July comin' long,
Peace a-smilin' nigh;
Sing yer patriotic song—
Don't blow yerself sky-high!
For if you did, it's plain and fair
You'd have no chance to break in there.

As He Sees It.

The weather-growler comes back at his critics with this one:

"I guess I'll leave the weather
To them that did begin it;
Of course, it pleases Providence,

Does Not Want Development Throttled in North Georgia

Editor Constitution: I notice in the papers there have been several bills introduced in the legislature to prevent any railroads from being built in north Georgia, or paralleling the Western and Atlantic railroad.

As a citizen and taxpayer I wish to enter a protest against the passage of any bill that will prevent a railroad from being built anywhere in the state that investors should desire, and especially in north Georgia, where there is a great deal of undeveloped territory that railroads would develop and thus add considerably to the valuation of property and taxes to be paid into the state treasury.

It seems from the efforts of the parties introducing the bills, it is to prevent competition to the Western and Atlantic railroad, where, as I see it, this road needs no protection, further than that given any corporation owning a road in the state.

As the matter now stands, every county through which this road passes would be better off if the road belonged to a corporation, for the counties and cities through which the road passes would get considerable taxes, whereas they now not only have to use tax money to hold courts, try litigation, etc., but they do not get one cent from the road in taxes.

Then again, other roads built in this section would give competition in rates, build up manufacturing plants, give employment to labor and lessen the costs of goods shipped in, which, in turn, would lessen the cost to the consumer, and thus help everyone.

I am opposed to the passing of any bill that will throttle improvement and development, no matter in what part of the state.

President Etheridge, of the Georgia Bankers' Association, Urges Banking Law Change

Editor Constitution: I have recently read a very interesting article from Mr. Beverly D. Harris, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, who has recently been visiting Texas and who has given out a statement analyzing the situation as he finds it in the south and southwest.

Among the many interesting things he has to say he ventures upon the financial situation and gives expression to his opinion in the following words:

"I am of the opinion if the state banking laws were so amended as to permit state banks, under the supervision and control of the state banking department, to accept drafts representing reasonable advances against cotton stored in state warehouses, also under the control of the state banking department, the credit machinery afforded thereby would be absolutely invaluable to this section as a means of carrying and marketing the cotton crop, and that a system of this kind would immediately result in the development of adequate warehouse facilities.

"To a certain extent the situation will be helped this year owing to the fact that the federal reserve banks can discount paper of this kind for their members, but to take care of the whole situation created by a general tie-up in the movement of cotton, would throw too large a burden on the federal reserve banks, and means would be provided by which banks' acceptances against cotton properly warehoused would float in the general markets. I am firmly of the opinion that this is the practical means by which all the cotton-growing states could readily supply all the machinery necessary for carrying and marketing their cotton and preventing the sacrifice of the same."

When we remember that in Georgia we have only 114 national banks who are members of the federal reserve system against 700 or more who are state banks, it can readily be seen how much more effectual the cotton crop could be handled if our state banking laws were amended so as to permit the assistance as suggested in the above opinion of Mr. Harris.

I undestand there is already prepared, or being prepared, a bill looking to the amending of our banking laws, for this very purpose, and I sincerely trust you will lend your influence toward the passage of same.

The federal reserve system, together with the amended laws, is going to make a great change in the marketing of our cotton crop. Instead of marketing it in three or four months in the year it will be marketed more gradually, and the farmers will not be forced to sell their cotton at distressed prices, as we have the new financial system, and we will be prepared to take care of it until the demand from the mills and export will naturally call for its consumption.

This is a great step forward as I see it, and is one of the evidences of being "liberated" as expressed by President Wilson when the reserve act was duly signed by him.

We have only to remember the conditions that faced us last fall and how "unprepared" we were for not only financing, but warehousing the cotton. You cannot, therefore, Mr. Editor, do a greater service than to urge upon the warehousemen in all of the small towns in Georgia the need and necessity of enlarging their capacity and equipping them with the sprinkling system or with water to lessen the rate of insurance, and be prepared to carry cotton for a longer period than has been in the past.

The marketing of the crop for the coming season should not catch us in the state of "unpreparedness" as it did last season, and it is vitally important that plans be put into effect and legislation enacted to remedy same.

I think, therefore, if you will emphasize the suggestion herein named and be instrumental in having it acted upon, you will be doing the farmers of our state and the general public a great service.

F. S. ETHERIDGE,
President Georgia Bankers' Association.
Jackson, Ga., June 30, 1915.

CITY HALL GOSSIP

Park Employees' Barbecue.

Park Manager J. O. Cochran and Councilman George Freeman, chairman of the park committee of council, were busy Friday arranging for the barbecue to be given this afternoon at 1 o'clock to the park officials and all park employees at Jackson's woods, near Grant park.

Anti-Mosquito Crusade.

The board of health, seeking to aid the mosquito squad in its campaign to rid the city of mosquitoes, Friday directed Chief Jentzen, of the sanitary department, to place at work two or more men to remove all tin cans and other receptacles from the garbage at the crematory, so that water standing in them may not breed mosquitoes. Discussion was also had of the wisdom of putting an inspector at work visiting residences of the city to see that all gutters are kept open so that they will be drained and kept free of standing water.

Improving Maddox Park.

The park manager has announced that Maddox park will not be open to the public on July 4, as reported, but will probably be open to men and boys only by noon of July 5. It will not be completed for use of the ladies until late in the summer. Tennis courts are being built and drives being graded at the park by the county board, but they will not be completed until next season. A band stand will also be erected next year. Plans for the improvement of the park, including the lake, were prepared by C. E. Kauffman, of the city construction department.

Suffragists Want Dance Hall.

Mrs. Emily C. McDougal and Miss Eleanor Raoul, representing the equal suffrage forces of Atlanta, will file a petition with general council Monday asking for the use of Taft hall, in the Auditorium, for a municipal dance hall.

Nashville Commissioner Here.

Commissioner Elliott, of the department of streets and waterworks, of Nashville, Tenn., spent Friday in Atlanta inspecting the streets, and went for a tour of inspection with Chief Jentzen, of the sanitary department, and Councilman Ashley, chairman of the sanitary committee of council. The Nashville official expressed himself as highly pleased with Atlanta, and declared that he was surprised to find such a large city with such clean streets.

Seventy-five bootblack stands located on the streets and sidewalks were forced to go out of business Thursday as a result of the recent action of general council in denying licenses to them after July 1. There was some opposition to this move, since a number of the negroes who operated the stands were cripples and were said to be unable to do any other kind of work for a livelihood.

Councilman Loves Children.

Councilman Claude Ashley, who is a great lover of children, spends much time during the school terms in the schools with the children and in vacation he visits them on the playgrounds. He has gotten the Atlanta Sand company to donate to the playground at Ponce de Leon park playground a carload of fine sand for the children. It will arrive and be placed on the ground for a big sand pile within the next few days.

Fuller's Fish Fry.

City Marshal Jim Fuller and Deputy Marshal L. O. Wright entertained a party of friends Thursday at a fish fry on Flint river, near Jester's mill, 20 miles below Atlanta. They used a seine and reported a catch of about twenty pounds of fish. The open season for seining was effective in Georgia Thursday, July 1, and several other parties from Atlanta also took advantage of this fact and, equipped with seines, spent the day on running streams in this vicinity.

Beavers for Grant Park.

The two beavers recently secured for Grant park by Councilman George Freeman, of the third ward, have arrived and been liberated at the park. They were the gift of the Beavers' club of Atlanta, and will replace the pair that died some time ago. They were shipped to Atlanta from Toronto, Canada, with no expense to the city. They arrived in good condition, and as soon as they were placed in the park they got busy building a home. The park board has built a special place for them near the zoo buildings. Councilman Freeman is ex-officio member of the park board.

City Taxes Due.

City Marshal Jim Fuller announced Friday that all city taxes must be paid on or before August 1, or property will be advertised for sale. He said he had been lenient this year on account of business conditions, but that only one more month will be given in which property owners can protect themselves.

Norman on Water Board.

H. H. Norman, member of the Tech High school faculty and in the manual training department, has been chosen a member of the water board from the fifth ward. He will succeed R. I. Hilley, who recently resigned on account of private business. Mr. Norman was advocated for the office by Councilman W. H. Johnson, of the fifth, and it was through his efforts that he was placed on the board.

Business License Renewals.

There was a rush Thursday by persons holding business licenses who wanted renewals and to take out new licenses, since that day all license taxes were due the city. The law provides that they may be paid as late as and including July 6. Practically all licenses in force last year remain the same this year. The amendment passed by council covers lines of business on which there was no tax collected last year. There are also several lines of business stricken from the list that will not be allowed to operate.

EXEMPTION OF COLLEGE ENDOWMENTS FROM TAXATION WINS IN COMMITTEE

The senate committee on constitutional amendments yesterday afternoon voted unanimously to report favorably on the bill introduced by Senator John D. Walker, of the twentieth district, to submit to the people the question whether college endowments in the state of Georgia shall be exempt from taxation. The bill provides, however, that the exemption from taxation shall include no real estate.

"Florida and Georgia are the only two southern states which still tax college endowments," said Senator Walker, the author of the bill, "and thirty-three other states in the union exempt college endowments. This bill is particularly timely now in view of the financial aid which will be given Oglethorpe university and Emory university.

"Under the present conditions, college endowments within this state are discouraged, because they are at a disadvantage, compared with those endowments in other states that exempt them from taxation."

Bill in the House.

A companion bill to Senator Walker's has been introduced in the house by Representative Henry J. Fullbright, of Burke county. The bill in both houses so far has received much commendation.

In a communication to the Georgia senate Wednesday, the Griffin district conference of the Methodist church, in session at Milner, Ga., June 24, indorsed the bill.

The communication stated that the conference, representing 11,000 Methodists, would appoint a committee of three from each county in the Griffin district to call upon the senate and express approval of the bill.

In connection with its favorable action on the bill to exempt denominational college endowments from taxation, the senate committee on constitutional amendments also reported favorably by the same vote the bill by Senator Lawrence, of the first, amending the constitution so as to exempt from taxation vessels owned by Georgians and engaged exclusively in foreign commerce. The object of this is to provide Georgia registration for such vessels. States of the north and east now exempt such vessels from taxation, whether owned by their citizens or not, and the consequence is Georgia-owned vessels in the foreign trade are registered in New York or some other eastern state. It is stated Georgia could not possibly lose anything by the amendment, and would be the gainer, in that vessels owned here and going abroad would be registered from this state. It is said many of those favoring the college measure will also support this one.

Fix Date for Trip.

Friday morning, after the senate had adjourned until Tuesday, Senator Dobbs called a meeting of the Western and Atlantic railroad committee and decided upon July 19 and 20 as the tentative dates for the joint committee of the house and senate to travel to Chattanooga for the purpose of inspecting the state's property there. The senate committee has settled on these dates in the hope that the house committee, as yet unorganized, will concur.

The only bill introduced in the senate Friday was one by Senator McLaughlin, of the thirty-sixth, to establish a state board of examiners for osteopathic physicians.

The Boykin resolution calling for a committee to be appointed to investigate the whole question of land title conditions in the state and report its findings to the legislature within thirty days was reported favorably by the general judiciary committee. On the committee President Persons named Senators Boykin of the seventeenth, Lawrence of the first and Moon of the thirty-seventh. A house committee will act in conjunction with this committee.

Friday morning the temperance committee of the senate met and set 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon as the date for the public hearing on the prohibition bills which have been referred to this committee. Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the committee will hold a meeting for other special questions.

Prohibition Bills.

The prohibition bills under consideration are as follows:

By Senator Stovall of the Thirtieth—To prohibit the shipment of whisky into the state for unlawful purposes.

By Senator Stovall of the Thirtieth—To prohibit whisky and beer advertisements in newspapers.

By Senator Mangham of the Thirty-eighth—To prohibit advertising whisky and beer in any medium whatever.

It is expected that large delegations will appear in favor of either side of these bills.

A bill by Senator McCrory of the thirteenth, concerning the rights of a debtor in case of a waiver of a homestead, was considered by the general judiciary committee. The bill was referred to a subcommittee composed of Senator McCrory of the thirteenth, Senator Lawrence of the first and Senator Menter of the twenty-fourth.

The same committee decided to report favorably a bill by Senator Pickett concerning the place of adjudication of cases where a railroad contests a tax claimed by a county. "Under the present law," stated Senator Pickett, "if a county has a claim for taxes against any railroad and that railroad refuses to pay those taxes, that county has to come to Fulton county to have the case adjudicated. This bill lets the case be adjudicated in the county where the tax is sought to be collected."

URGE WILSON TO USE EVERY EFFORT TO KEEP ALL NEUTRAL PORTS OPEN

Upon motion of Albert Howell, Jr., the board of directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce passed resolutions at a special called meeting Friday noon, petitioning President Wilson, United States senators and representatives from Georgia and thirty commercial organizations of the south, to expend every effort in opening the closed neutral ports of Europe, thereby bringing relief to the cotton situation in America. The resolution was drafted by a committee composed of Mr. Howell, chairman; Ivan E. Allen and Brooks Morgan.

Directly after the meeting of the board Secretary W. G. Cooper, of the chamber of commerce, telegraphed a copy of the resolutions to President Wilson and also dispatched copies to commercial organizations of neighboring cities.

Recently Secretary Cooper received a letter from Senator Hoke Smith advocating practically the same steps taken by the board Friday.

Resolutions Passed.

The resolutions read as follows:

"Whereas, the situation of cotton and cotton products with reference to export is causing grave inconvenience, loss and alarm in the cotton states; and,

"Whereas, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce thoroughly appreciates and heartily indorses the attitude of the present administration in its efforts to relieve this condition and open the neutral ports of Europe to the reception of cotton and cotton goods; and,

"Whereas, we believe it to be the desire and purpose of all commercial and trade bodies in the cotton states to sustain and aid the administration in the satisfactory completion of the pending negotiations to afford the desired relief; therefore, be it

"Resolved by the directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, That we express to the president of the United States our full appreciation of what has already been done by the administration in its effort to relieve this condition and tender our full co-operation locally and throughout the cotton states in the consummation of any plan that may be formulated by the administration to bring these negotiations to a prompt and successful culmination; be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the president, to the United States senators from Georgia, to the Georgia congressmen in the national house of representatives, and to other southern trade bodies."

New Bills Introduced In Both Branches of Legislature Yesterday

New Bills in the House.

The following bills were introduced in the house Friday:

By Mr. Ledbetter of Polk—To prohibit killing fish with dynamite or other explosives.

By Mr. Hopkins of Thomas—To increase tax levy for public school system in Thomasville.

By Mr. Rushing of Dooly—To create new charter for city of Vienna.

By Mr. Parker of Ware—To create new county of Lanier from portions of Berrien, Clinch and Lowndes counties, with Milltown as the county seat.

By Mr. Davis of Laurens—To amend section 3438 of the code relating to loans and interest.

By Mr. Harris of Washington—To appoint joint commission to consider all bills relating to court procedure.

By Mr. Foster of Morgan—To amend the game law.

By Mr. Nunn of Houston—To amend act relating to payment of court costs by certain counties.

By Mr. Ennis of Baldwin—To repeal act creating salaries of principal physician and superintendent of state sanitarium.

By Mr. Cooper of Ware—To require tax receivers to report tax digests to clerks of superior court instead of to ordinaries.

By Mr. Yeomans of Terrell—To increase salaries of prison commissioners from $2,000 to $3,000 per year.

By Carroll Delegation—To protect trade against unlawful restraints and monopolies. (This is "anti-ice trust" bill.)

By Mr. Morris of Hart—To authorize Hart county commissioners to collect and disburse commutation tax.

By Mr. Andrews of Fulton—To prohibit undue and misleading advertisements.

One resolution was introduced by Mr. Harris of Washington—To pay ordinaries for disbursing pensions in 1915, 1916 and 1917.

One bill was introduced in the senate, a bill by Senator McLaughlin, of the Thirty-sixth, to amend an act establishing a board of osteopathic examiners in Georgia.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

Favor Endowment Bill.

The senate constitutional amendments committee, Senator Smith of the Thirty-fourth chairman, at a meeting Friday afternoon recommended favorably the endowment bill of Senator John D. Walker of the Twentieth. This measure provides for the exemption from taxation of all funds or property held or used as endowments by any or all educational institutions in Georgia, providing, however, such funds are not invested in real estate. This bill is looked upon with favor by many of the leading members of both houses.

The committee also reported favorably the bill of Senator Lawrence of the First, which would exempt from taxation all vessels used exclusively in foreign commerce when such vessels are owned and operated by citizens of Georgia. The bill is designed to encourage the registration of vessels in Georgia.

Savannah and Auto Law.

Although Judge Charlton, of Chatham superior court, on Thursday granted an injunction restraining the city of Savannah from enforcing the state automobile license tax law, Secretary of State Phil Cook on Friday received another application from Savannah for an automobile license tag. The application was accompanied by the necessary $5, and the tag was forwarded Friday to J. A. Benham, 14 East Fortieth street, Savannah, Ga.

Governor's Trip to Rome.

The details of the trip of Governor Nat E. Harris to Rome Monday, when he will deliver an address at the invitation of the citizens of Rome, have been completed.

The party will consist of Governor and Mrs. Harris and D. F. McClatchey, secretary of the senate. They will leave Atlanta Monday morning at 8 o'clock in an automobile which the Rome Chamber of Commerce has provided for the party. The governor will deliver his address that afternoon and return to Atlanta.

The occasion is the celebration of Rome's location upon and part in the construction of the Dixie highway and the proposed branch highway from Rome to Montgomery.

Hardwick Speaks at Athens.

Senator Thomas W. Hardwick will leave Atlanta Saturday morning for Athens, Ga., where he will address the students of the summer school of the University of Georgia at 11:30 o'clock. He will return to Atlanta in the afternoon. There are now about 800 students attending the summer school.

Chattanooga Trip.

The senate committee on the Western and Atlantic railroad has set July 19 and 20 as the time for a visit to Chattanooga for the purpose of inspecting the state's railroad properties in that city.

The house committee on the Western and Atlantic railroad has not yet organized, but will probably do so next Tuesday by the chairman, Mr. Andrews, of Fulton county.

It is the wish of the senate committee to have the house committee visit Chattanooga at the same time, so that a joint committee can frame a full report.

Price Addresses Farmers.

Commissioner of Agriculture J. D. Price will address the farmers of Barrow county at Winder today. Next week he will go to Clayton and Lavonia.

PLAN PROMPT PAY FOR THE TEACHERS

Senator John D. Walker Will Introduce Bill Allowing State Education Board to Borrow Money.

A bill which is designed to solve the perpetual problem of prompt payment of the state's teachers will be presented to the general assembly by Senator John D. Walker, of the twentieth district, probably next Tuesday.

The bill is now being perfected by Senator Walker, State Superintendent of Schools M. L. Brittain, Governor Harris and Attorney General Clifford Walker, who have held a number of conferences upon it in the last several days.

This bill would constitute the state board of education as a corporate body, along the lines suggested in the messages of Governor Harris and Governor Slaton, with authority to borrow the necessary funds for the prompt payment of the state's school teachers, using the governor's warrant upon the state treasury department for teachers' pay as collateral for the loan.

It is also suggested, as an alternative, that the governor's warrant may be sold outright for the purpose of obtaining money promptly, although it is more probable that the former course will be authorized in the bill.

Confer With Federal Bank.

It is understood that arrangements can probably be made with the Atlanta federal reserve bank to handle a part of the paper. Conferences have already been held with reserve bank officials looking to this end.

It is stated that, in the opinion of several prominent attorneys who have been consulted, the clothing of the state board of education with borrowing power will not be in conflict with the constitutional limitation which restricts the state from borrowing more than $500,000. The position is taken, it is understood, that the constitution in this limitation does not take into consideration the methods the state might pursue in the conduct of its routine business, but that the restriction applies to such loans as might be for extraordinary purposes or might require a special appropriation to meet them.

The prompt payment of the school teachers has been for many years not only one of the most important problems of the state, but one of the most difficult to solve. As a matter of fact, the problem of prompt payment has not been solved. The state is now one year behind in its payment to the teachers.

Teachers Have to Borrow.

The result is that in many instances not only counties have been forced to borrow money to pay the teachers, but the teachers themselves have had to borrow money at high rates of interest. The counties are usually able to borrow this money at from 6 to 8 per cent. The teachers, in cases where counties have issued scrip to them, have had to pay as high as 12 to 15 per cent interest upon the money which they borrowed to tide them over until they received payment from the state.

In the final analysis the interest upon these loans comes from the state school fund, whether directly or not, thus reducing the usefulness of the fund to the extent of the amount of the aggregate interest paid.

The proposed bill, if adopted into a law, would give the state board the same power to borrow that a number of counties now exercise for the payment of teachers, except that the power of the state board would be on a scale commensurate with the entire appropriation for payment of school teachers.

The advantage in allowing the state board to borrow this money would be that, because of its ability to borrow large sums, the rate of interest could be very materially reduced. The sponsors of the bill claim that the state board could borrow money at a rate of interest as low as 3 or 4 per cent, as against 6 or 8 that the counties pay and the 12 or 15 that the teachers sometimes pay

Conference Over Bill.

The proposed measure is the outcome of a series of conferences between Governor Harris, Superintendent Brittain, Attorney General Walker, State Tax Commissioner John C. Hart and Senator Walker.

Several legal aspects of the bill remain to be verified before it is ready to be presented.

Some of the principal provisions of the bill will probably be authority to the state board of education to borrow a sum of money not greater than the appropriation to the public school fund; that such a loan in all its details shall be authorized by a resolution of the board, duly recorded upon the board's minutes; that such a loan shall not be made for a longer time than is necessary and shall be paid immediately upon the receipt of the taxes for the year by the state treasurer; that the loan shall be made at as low a rate of interest as possible; that the payments of the teachers shall be made promptly each month; that the governor and the state superintendent of education shall have the power of executing the notes in the name of the state board for such loans as might be made.

ANOTHER NEW COUNTY PUTS IN ITS CLAIMS

Both of New County Bills Introduced Seek to Divide Berrien.

A bill for the creation af another new county was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative Parker, of Ware county. The proposed new county is to be taken from portions of Berrien, Clinch and Lowndes counties, with Milltown as the county seat.

A bill is already before the house for the creation of a new county to be known as Atkinson county and to be made of sections of Berrien and Coffee counties.

There are four bills before the house to stop the killing off of fish with dynamite, the last bill coming from Dr. Ledbetter, of Polk county.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Yeomans, of Terrell, to increase the salaries of the prison commissioners from $2,000 to $3,000 a year.

Anti-Ice Trust Bill.

The anti-ice trust bill made its appearance in the house with Messrs. Beck and Dorsett, of Carroll county, as the authors. A very similar bill was before the house last session and was known as the Wimberly bill. The caption reads, "To protect trades and commerce from unlawful combinations." It was said last year that the Wimberly bill was aimed at the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation, and it is believed that the present bill has the same object in view. The following is the main provision of the bill:

"Be it enacted that every person, corporation, joint stock company, or other association engaged in business within this state who shall enter into any contract, combination or conspiracy, or who shall give any direction or authority to do any act, for the purpose of drawing out of business any other person engaged therein, or who for such purpose shall in the course of such business sell any article or product at less than its fair market value, or at a less price than it is accustomed to demand or receive therefor, in any other place under like conditions, or who shall sell any article upon a condition, contract or understanding that it shall not be sold again by the purchaser, or restrain such sale by the purchaser, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished as for a misdemeanor."

Fake Advertising Bill.

Mr. Andrews, of Fulton, introduced a bill to prohibit fake advertising, the full text of which is given elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Ennis, of Baldwin, offered a bill which seeks to abolish the salaries of the superintendent and principal physician of the state sanitarium. The object of the bill is to place the naming of the salaries with the trustees of the institution, so that they can be raised.

"The present salaries," stated Mr. Ennis, "are $2,500 for the superintendent and $1,500 for the chief physician, and they were so fixed in 1877, nearly forty years ago, when there were only about 800 inmates in the sanitarium. Now the inmates number 3,600."

Only one resolution was introduced, and that provided for an appropriation with which to pay the ordinaries for their pension services in 1915, 1916 and 1917.

The house adjourned until Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock on account of next Monday being observed as the Fourth of July.

MOB LAW IS RAPPED BY THE GRAND JURY

"Recent Occurrences in the City" Mentioned in Special Presentments.

The grand jury for the May term submitted special presentments to Judge Hill yesterday morning in which attention was called to "mob law" because, it was stated, of "recent occurences in the city."

Speaking of "mob law" the grand jury says:

"Recent occurrences in our city and county have made us feel that it is our duty to call attention to the mob law spirit which obtained at that time. We fear it will eventually disrupt our government unless checked. We want to put in enduring form our condemnation of all kinds of mob law, whether it be taking the life of some criminal for the perpetration of some heinous offense or inflammatory manifestation or disapproval of any act or acts of public officials. To attempt to harm such officials, in person or property, is a manifestation of mob violence, which if continued will subvert the very foundation of our government. In fact the perpetration of one act of such violence will lead to another and unless checked will extend until individuals singly and collectively will undertake to take the law into their own hands and administer punishment for what they may consider a violation of their rights."

The jury called attention to merchants keeping their places of business open on Sundays. It recommended that the removal from any building of any fixtures be made a felony, and that the county officers enforce more rigidly the auto road laws.

The statement was made that 164 true bills had been found and no bills made in twenty-six cases. The court officials were thanked for valuable assistance rendered the jury.

PAVING IMPROVEMENT PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

Three of the most important paving improvements to be made this year were passed up Friday by the council street committee to be acted on by general council next Monday. Appropriations have already been made for the work, which will begin as soon as authorized by council.

Advocates of wood block for Ponce de Leon avenue lost out in their efforts to secure that paving between the car tracks and the curb when the committee, by a vote of 3 to 2, decided on brick between the car tracks and asphalt macadam between the tracks and curb.

The committee accepted the proposition of the public works committee of the county board to lay bitulithic on Mitchell street if the city would lay the concrete foundation. The grading of the street has been in progress several months and is practically completed.

At the instance of Councilman Sim Dallas, of the seventh ward, the committee passed favorably on the petition of abutting property owners for wood block paving on Gordon street, and the work will begin within the next few weeks.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN COMING OF "SCANDAL"

There has been a great interest in the announcement that Jake Wells has arranged for the presentation of the Universal feature "Scandal," a five-reel photo-drama by Lois Weber, the author of "Hypocrites," to be the first of a series of special motion picture offerings at the Forsyth during the vaudeville vacation. The picture will be exhibited daily at 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoons, and again at 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening. Reserved seats can be secured for any performance, and in consequence a number of theater parties have been arranged. "Scandal" shows how very easy it is to misunderstand something, talk about it and ruin a life or a business or even a home. "Scandal" is wonderfully produced. It is a remarkable exhibition of modern photography, and it is being presented by a company of more than ordinary talent. The prices of admission will be 15 and 25 cents, and reservations can be secured now for almost any performance.

BEAVERS VISITS CAPTAIN ENGLISH

Police Chief Beavers, accompanied by Chief of City Detectives Newport Lanford, called at the office of Captain James W. English, Fourth National bank, late Friday afternoon and spent more than thirty minutes in consultation with the police commissioner, who, at Thursday night's meeting of the police board, told Beavers "that vice had promiscuously scattered over Atlanta since Beavers closed the tenderloin district in Atlanta in September, 1912," in which charge Captain English was backed up by his fellow-commissioners.

Beavers and Lanford were in quest of a list of fifty lewd houses which Commissioner English promised to turn over to him on the provision that he (Beavers) send a reliable officer to his office, an officer that Captain English felt he could trust to rid the city of lewd houses.

Did Not Give List.

Captain English, when asked for a statement concerning the visit, refused to talk beyond declaring that he had not given any list to Beavers or to Lanford.

Chief Beavers positively refused to talk for publication. He was pressed to state what action he would take in regard to the adoption of the probe report of the special investigation committee of the police board, which declared, among a number of other sensational charges, that "vice is promiscuously scattered over the city."

"I will say nothing for publication," Chief Beavers would say. "I will say nothing for the papers."

"It is an interesting situation," declared Chief Lanford. "One I wish I could remedy, but with my limited force of sixteen detectives I have no time to give to the running down of women. My men must make good, and catch the thieves who infest the city.

Why Houses Operate.

Captain English says that he is seeking to find out why the police allow lewd houses to operate in all sections of the city, as alleged in the report on "vice conditions" in the probe report.

"There is no reason why the police cannot find these houses," he said. "I am told they have increased in number by three since the red light district was closed. Beavers must show why he does not prosecute them."

It is rumored that members of the police commission are forming a plan to investigate charges against Police Chief Beavers, basing them on the probe report of the special investigating committee, which rapped the chief.

However, Chairman Fain reiterates his statement of a few days ago that the report does not bring sufficient charges against the police chief to warrant his suspension pending a trial on formal charges.

A detailed review of the probe report, which was adopted for the most part by the board at Thursday night's meeting of the board, discloses the following charges brought against Beavers:

Charges Against Chief.

That vice is scattered promiscuously over the city; that Chief Beavers is controlled too much by "outside influences" and should be made amenable to the wishes of the police board; that Beavers should maintain a higher standard of discipline in the police force, and should get out personally among the men on their beats; that he should have regular office hours; that there is too much friction between Beavers and Lanford, and that the police department is suffering as a result; that the detective department should keep better records of goods reported stolen to them; that Beavers should see that the police are more courteous to the public.

One Probation Officer.

It is recommended that Recorder Johnson should have charge of adult probation cases, and the probation department force be reduced from three to one man; that Stenographer G. A. February, of the detective department, do not henceforth do the stenographic work for the recorder's court;

J. M. Gloer, juvenile probation officer, and his assistant, B. B. Posey, are praised for efficient service, and it is stated that Mrs. Bohnefeld, police matron, was doing good work, and that she be given an assistant.

The committee recommended that an expert clerk be detailed in the station sergeant's office to handle records; that arresting officers write names of persons arrested before arrival of patrol wagon, and turn these names over to guard for information of station sergeant.

Suggest Police Sergeant.

That Chief Lanford and Chief Beavers confer, and suggest the name of a police sergeant, who shall be detailed as sergeant of detectives, to have charge of the detectives in the field; that the police co-operate with the Associated Charities in ridding the city of beggars; that Chief Beavers pay closer attention to complaints coming from citizens relative to stolen articles; that the chiefs of police and detectives be more careful in selecting their men for detective work.

The report asserted that the assistant chief of police, captains of police and sergeants of police are doing their best to carry out the instructions of the chief of police.

A recommendation in the report that the merit and demerit system, in vogue in railroad systems, be established on the police force, was referred to a committee composed of Robert P. Pace, chairman, and Commissioners Andy Kling and W. A. Vernoy. This committee was also given instructions to investigate further into a number of other recommendations made in the probe report.

The next meeting of the police board is the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday night next.

If any effort to institute charges against Chief Beavers is to be made it will probably be made known at this meeting.

ATLANTA ELKS LEAVE FOR CONVENTION TODAY

Members of Lodge No. 78 Confident They Will Win Next Grand Lodge Meeting.

The delegation from the Atlanta lodge of Elks, which leaves tomorrow for the grand lodge meeting in Los Angeles, proposes to bring the next session of the grand lodge to Atlanta.

This delegation is composed of Al Dunn, George C. James, R. A. Gordon, J. P. Billups, Walter Dunn, E. C. Trotter, with two or three others who probably will not finally decide to make the trip until today.

The party will travel on a special train with delegations from Americus, Fitzgerald and other Georgia towns. They will also be joined here by a car of twenty-one Elks from South Carolina, and expect to go out of the Terminal station with at least seventy-five enthusiastic members of the order in the party.

The Atlanta lodge of Elks has made elaborate preparations for inducing the grand lodge to come here next year. The invitation will be delivered by Al Dunn, who will at the same time present invitations from the governor, the two houses of the legislature, the mayor, the chamber of commerce and other civic bodies.

R. A. Gordon, of the delegation, has had a letter from Boston, which is sending 75,000 to the Los Angeles meeting. It is stated that 98 per cent of the New England contingent are for Atlanta. Another letter from Seattle indicates that a majority of the Pacific coast expect to support Atlanta, and the retiring exalted ruler, Robert W. Brown, stated that Kentucky will be solid for this city. Past Grand Exalted Ruler Joe Fannin, who now resides in New York, says that a large portion of the east is favorable to the next convention being held in the Georgia capital, and that he and his friends are especially anxious to come here.

All members of Atlanta lodge, No. 78, B. P. O. E., are requested to meet at the lodge room at 4 o'clock this afternoon in order to act as an escort to the local delegation on the way to the train.

TRUTH WILL END LAW-BREAKING LOCKER-CLUBS

"We can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth." II Cor. 13-8

THE SUPREME COURT has declared—

The locker club is not a business, and the sale of liquor in a club is a violation of law.

COUNCIL has said—

Those desiring to operate a locker club "shall file a petition with the MAYOR AND COUNCIL asking for license therefor—

"NO LICENSE or permit shall be granted—unless it appears that same is a bona fide social or locker club and not instituted or operated—for the purpose of providing a place wherein intoxicating liquors, wine, beer, etc., may be furnished under the form of a club—

"NO LICENSE—shall be issued to any club, unless it appears that same is operated, maintained, or proposed to be operated as a bona fide social or locker club, having a room or place—at which—LOCKERS are maintained for the BONA FIDE use of MEMBERS ONLY—and NOT AS A CLOAK OR SUBTERFUGE for the sale of intoxicants; and having a membership whose dues or entrance fees are sufficient to provide for the maintenance of such organization and the expenses thereof."

Mayor and Council, together, alone have authority to license a locker club.

Monday, Council refused to license nine clubs and deferred action on others.

Notwithstanding WITHOUT regard for Council or law, CHAIRMAN EDWIN JOHNSON, according to paper reports, has authorized all locker clubs to continue to do business.

The same day, Thursday, the attorney for the Central Club, Mr. James Warren, said to Mr. Johnson's committee—

"None of the clubs nor saloons are operating in accordance with the law."

MAYOR WOODWARD, who has since vetoed the only five licenses granted by Council, said to the committee—

"If the police will properly enforce the state laws and make the locker clubs obey them, every locker club will have to go out of business."

THAT SAME DAY, if not the same hour, Recorder Johnson, in fining the manager of the Greek club and the bartender thereof, "brought out the information that FORTY CENTS is the standard PRICE in Atlanta locker clubs for half a pint of WHISKY."

Yet, papers say the Police Committee will again recommend to Council that all locker clubs be licensed, with the addition of the T. M. A. CLUB.

YOU recall—That club upon the petition of poor Mrs. Tabarini, seeking a share of the profits, was for a short time in the hands of a receiver of the Superior Court. The interested parties are today under indictment.

MR. A. W. FARLINGER, a member of the Police Committee, if the paper be correct, will hand in a minority report as to the T. M. A. and the OWLS CLUB. Doubtless, he has in mind the man killed at the door of the Owls and the young woman who attempted suicide after the Owls' dance.

YOU will remember the would-be suicide carried from the MOOSE a few months back.

And you have not forgotten the man found dead with the whiskey flask in the basement of the building where the EAGLES roost. The sister of the man, shot a few weeks back before the Carnegie Library, says, he had been drinking at the EAGLES' CLUB.

THINK!

The law places upon the Mayor and Council of Atlanta the duty to see that known violators of the law do not get the license or permit of Atlanta to maintain a locker club as a cloak or subterfuge to hide the sale of liquor.

THE NAME of Atlanta has been bandied about the world as the city without regard for law, decency or order.

WE know that—

The majority of our people, and—

Most of our public officials respect and uphold those principles without which a city is hopelessly lost and her people doomed.

BUT—

We ask the Mayor and Council to prove this to the world—

TODAY THEY have the opportunity. Monday, if they fail to grasp it, it will be forever gone, and another wrong will have been placed upon the Capital of Georgia.

SHOULD Atlanta be dragged in the mire—Should private citizens be forced to fight to put out of business men and organizations which should be kept out of business by the Mayor and Council, because the Mayor and Council KNOW that they have broken the law and propose to BREAK the law by selling intoxicants?

GO TO CHURCH TOMORROW AND PRAY—

THAT GOD give to pulpit, press and people the TRUTH for ATLANTA.

Final Game Rained Out---Pels Here Today

Edited By Dick Jemison

Final With Barons Off; Rain Floods the Field

Birmingham, Ala., July 2.—(Special.) The final game of the series between the Crackers and Barons was called at the end of the third inning today, due to a terrific rain storm which occurred at this stage of the game. Thirty minutes were waited, and at the expiration of this time the rain was still pouring in such torrents the only thing that could be done was to postpone the game.

During the three innings the game lasted neither side had been able to score a run. The Crackers had a good chance in the third. With Moran on third and Lee on second, Manning flied to right, retiring the side. The Crackers secured four hits off Black, while Allen allowed but two in the three innings.

The game will be played off when the Crackers make their next appearance in Slagville.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Dodgers 3, Giants 0.

Brooklyn, July 2.—Coombs and Mathewson engaged in a pitchers' duel here today with Coombs having the better of the veteran Giant, shutting out New York, 3 to 0, giving Brooklyn its third straight game from the Giants. Infield hits by Myers and O'Mara, Daubert's sacrifice and a fielder's choice, gave the Superbas a run in the first inning. Daubert's single, Wheat's three-bagger and Cutshaw's hit for a base gave the home team a pair of runs in the eighth. Manager McGraw was put off the field for kicking at Umpire Eason's decision on Cutshaw's steal of third base in the third inning.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
New York . . . . .000 000 000—0	4	3
Brooklyn . . . . .100 000 02x—3	6	3

Batteries—Mathewson and Meyers; Coombs and Miller.

Cards 2, Reds 0.

Cincinnati, July 2.—Meadows allowed Cincinnati one hit and St. Louis won 2 to 0. St. Louis made its two runs by three successive hits and a sacrifice hit in the eighth inning. With the exception of this inning Toney also pitched good ball. Groh spiked Betzel in the fifth and the latter was forced to retire from the game.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis . . . . .000 000 020—2	6	0
Cincinnati . . . . .000 000 000—0	1	0

Batteries—Meadows and Snyder; Toney and Clark.

Cubs 2, Pirates 1.

Chicago, July 2.—Chicago bunched hits today and defated Pittsburg 2 to 1. Good's single, a sacrifice and Saier's Texas leaguer gave the locals the winning run in the ninth inning. Their other run was made on singles by Saier and Williams and a sacrifice and an infield out. The visitors' lone run was a gift which resulted from a base on balls to Baird, his stolen base and Zimmerman's wild throw of Wagner's grounder.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg . . . . .000 100 000—1	3	0
Chicago . . . . .000 010 001—2	5	3

Boston-Philadelphia—Postponed; wet grounds.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yanks 1, Senators 0.

New York, July 2.—New York climbed back into fourth place today by defeating Washington in a light-hitting game, 1 to 0. Both Pieh and Shaw pitched almost invincible ball, New York making only three hits and Washington two. Only two of the hits went to the outfield.

New York scored the lone run of the game in the sixth inning after the side should have been retired. Sweeney walked and was forced by Pieh. With a double play in front of him, Neff fumbled on High. Peckinpaugh struck out and Maisel's single filled the bases. Pipp hit a slow roller through the infield and when Maisel beat Neff's throw to second for a force play, Pieh scored.

In the seventh Washington filled the bases with one out, but Gandil flied to Hartzell, and the outfielder's fine throw doubled Connolly at the plate.

Score by innings.	R.	H.	E.
Washington . . . . .000 000 000—0	2	2
New York . . . . .000 001 00x—1	3	1

Batteries—Shaw, Ayres and Henry; Pieh and Sweeney.

Tigers 2, White Sox 1.

Detroit, July 2.—Urban Faber suffered his third defeat of the season today when Detroit defeated Chicago 2 to 1. He has won thirteen games. Dubuc gave more hits than Faber, but Chicago could not bunch them. Crawford's home run drive over the bleacher screen featured.

Score by innings.	R.	H.	E.
Chicago . . . . .001 000 000—1	8	2
Detroit . . . . .010 000 01x—2	5	0

Batteries—Hawkins and Nance; Sloan and Taylor. Time, 1:25. Umpire, Stewart.

Thomasville-Gainesville Game Off.

Gainesville, Gla., July 2.—(Special.) Thomasville failed to reach Gainesville in time for today's game, and it was declared off. What disposition will be made of the game is not known.

President's Trophy Tourney Starts at East Lake Today

The qualifying round for the handsome trophy offered by Asa G. Candler will be played by the golfers of the Atlanta Athletic club over the links at East Lake today. This is the annual president's trophy tournament, one of the most interesting tourneys of the year.

All players will qualify to their gross score. However, handicaps will apply in all matches. All matches will be for eighteen holes. As many flights as fill will be played. An entrance fee of $1 will be charged each starter.

The president's tourney at East Lake always attracts a large number of golfers, and there are usuall five flights filled. This affair is an annual event. Besides the handsome trophy offered by Mr. Candler, prizes will be awarded the winners of each other flight and to the runner-up of the first flight.

Donaldsonville Wins.

Donaldsonville, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Donaldsonville made it two out of three from Quincy, Fla., today by winning the first game of a doubleheader. Score 3 to 2. Quincy won the second game, 2 to 0.

Batteries—Lever and Steely, for Donaldsonville; Sanders and Williamson and McCorvey, for Quincy.

Donaldsonville club challenges any fast club in the state.

Covington Wins.

Covington, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Covington defeated Monroe today in an interesting game up until the seventh inning by the score of 11 to 2. Batteries—For Covington, Gheesling and Newson; Monroe, Murphy, Arnold and Nunnally. Struck out, by Gheesling 11, by Murphy 4; hits, Covington 12, Monroe 3; errors, Covington 3, Monroe 6.

WATER CARNIVAL THIS AFTERNOON AT EAST LAKE

The first of a series of three water carnivals to be held on the lake at East Lake will be staged this afternoon. This event is preparatory to the holding of the annual water carnival later in the season.

The events that will be held today will include swimming, both marathon and fancy, and also fancy diving. A feature of the afternoon will be the ladies' events.

Some of the best swimmers in the city are entered, and it is expected that competition in all speed contests will be fierce. The fancy diving should prove to be a spectacular event on the program.

The events that will be held, the first starting at 5:15, are:

100-Yard Swim, Scratch—L. S. Crane, Walter DuBard, G. H. Bonnell, W. A. Logan, Louis Sams, Bruce Sams, Glenn Evans, Alvin Cowles.

200-Yard Swim, Handicap—L. S. Crane, Walter DuBard, G. H. Bonnell, W. A. Logan, Louis Sams, Bruce Sams, Glenn Evans, Alvin Cowles.

BIRMINGHAM WILL RAISE 1914 PENNANT TODAY

Birmingham, Ala., July 2.—(Special.) Birmingham will raise the 1914 pennant at Rickwood field tomorrow afternoon, when the Barons meet Mobile. An especial program has been arranged for the day. The pennant was scheduled to be raised during the Atlanta series, but under an agreement reached here at the recent meeting of league officials the date was changed. This was one inducement offered the Gull management if Mobile would stick out the season under adverse conditions.

FOUR ATLANTANS WIN IN TOURNEY AT ROME

Rome, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—In a golf tournament on the Country club links today for the benefit of the Berry circle four Atlanta golfers took part. Perry Adair, with a score of 40 for the nine holes, came within one of breaking the course record. "Little Bob" Jones played a 41 and Frank Adair a 53. Miss Alexa Sterling made a 48 in the tournament, but in a practice game in the morning played 43. All of the Atlantans won prizes.

CRACKERS SHOULD START UP LADDER

Have Twenty-One Games on Home Soil, Starting With the New Orleans Birds Today.

By Dick Jemison.

If the Crackers are ever to get in the running this season their chance has arrived. Commencing today, they are at home for a stay of twenty-one battles, and on the outcome of these games will depend largely just where the team will finish this season.

The personnel now has a settled aspect. The management is satisfied with the team as it stands, and believe it ought to play winning ball. If it does not on this home stay, then—good night.

Opportunity knocks but once. It is knocking today at the door of Bill Smith and his Cracker warriors. Are they going to open the door and let him in? That's the question that interests local fandom.

Our standing is a lowly one, but we are not so far behind the elite. A few consecutive wins would put us right back in the running. And it is to be hoped the bunch see their chances and make the best of them.

Pelicans First.

Johnny Dobbs and his Pelicans are our guests today, with morning and afternoon games Monday and a single contest on Tuesday. The Pelicans have had our number most of the time this season, but it is time for the worm to turn.

We have played the Pelicans eleven contests this season, seven of which have gone to the opposition and four being copped by the home boys. Fine chance to come near evening the count by winning three out of four this time.

The Chattanooga Lookouts come next Wednesday for five games, four scheduled and one postponed from their last visit here.

Then come the Memphis Chicks for four games, with a scheduled doubleheader on Monday, July 12. Little Rock closes that week with three games.

The home stay will be brought to a close by the Nashville Vols, who play single games here July 19, 20, 21 and 22.

The locals then hit the road for sixteen games, playing Memphis, Little Rock, Nashville and Chattanooga in that order. They then return for three games with Mobile, then go to New Orleans for three, then return home for nineteen, with Little Rock, Chattanooga, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans and Birmingham in that order, and then close the season on the road with eighteen games in Birmingham, Mobile, New Orleans, Chattanooga, Little Rock and Memphis.

Lindale Wins.

Cedartown, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—The second game went to Lindale this afternoon by the score of 5 to 3. Osborne, for Lindale, knocked a home run over right field fence.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Lindale. . . . . .110 002 010—5	6	2
Cedartown. . . . . .010 002 000—3	6	2

Batteries—Lindale, Osborne and Cook; Cedartown, Robinson, Thompson and Smith and Cooper. Umpire, Mitchell.

Cochran Wins.

Cochran, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Cochran defeated Dawson on the latter's grounds, 3 to 0. By winning today's game Cochran has won two, tied two and lost one this week. The first game at Dawson was 1 to 0 in Cochran's favor. Cochran goes to Fitzgerald Monday for three games.

SOUTH ATLANTIC

Babies 4, Gamecocks 1.

Columbia, July 2.—Woolf pitched good ball this afternoon and Albany evened the series by winning from Columbia, 5 to 1. Gardin, too, was in good form, but suffered from poor support. A misjudgedfly from Waldron's bat went for a home run, and scored three runs in the second. A sensational catch by Nally featured.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Albany. . . . .030 010 100—5	7	1
Columbia. . . . .010 000 000—1	4	2

Batteries—Woolf and Erwin; Gardin and Connolly. Time, 1:35. Umpire, Vitter.

Indians 9, Tigers 2.

Savannah, Ga., July 2.—Savannah took an easy game from Macon today, 9 to 2. Martin was hammered unmercifully for the first six innings. Moore replaced him in a general switch of positions in the seventh, and pitched the last two innings without a hit against him. Chancey registered his hundredth hit of the season on his third time at bat, being the first man in the league to reach the century mark.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Macon . . . . .100 001 000—2	10	3
Savannah . . . . .430 002 00x—9	14	1

Batteries — Martin, Moore and Basham; Camnitz and Gust. Time 1:22. Umpire, Hoey.

Foxes 2, Gulls 1.

Charleston, S. C., July 2.—Columbus evened up the series with Charleston by taking today's game, 2 to 1. A close play at first base that let in a runner from third scored the winning run in the seventh. It was a pitchers' duel, with Redding having the best of it. Cates tripled in the eighth, but Redding fanned the next three men.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Columbus. . . . .000 010 100—2	7	0
Charleston . . . .010 000 000—1	6	1

Batteries—Redding and Krebs; Fillingem and Marshall. Time, 1:45. Umpire, Ryan.

Tourists 3, Scouts 1.

Augusta, Ga., July 2.—Roth was too much for Jacksonville, allowing only seven men to reach first base, and Augusta easily won the game here today, 3 to 1. A catch by Eubanks of a foul fly against the grand stand featured.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Jacksonville . . . 000 000 010—1	5	3
Augusta . . . . .010 100 01x—3	9	0

GEORGIA-ALABAMA

Talladega 6, nniston 1.

Talladega, Ala., July 2.—(Special.)—Talladega made it two straight from Anniston today, 6 to 1. It was the quickest and fastest game played; also the best game here this season. In the second inning Jackson singled, Koenig walked, Marion was hit by a ball, then came smiling Sanford up and looked over the first three balls and two strikes and the next one he slammed over deep left field fence for a home run for the longest hit seen this season. Jackson featured also at the bat, getting three out of four.

Score by innings.	R.	H.	E.
Anniston . . . . .000 001 000—1	8	1
Talladega . . . . .040 010 10x—6	9	1

Newnan 5, Rome 2.

Newnan, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Whitney, pitching for Newnan, this afternoon was too much for Rome, allowing them only five hits. The Newnan batters hit Winchell hard in the eighth inning, two walks, a two-base hit a home run and two singles netting four runs in that inning. The feature of the game was the pitching of Whitney and Griffin's home run in the eighth inning with two men on the bases.

Score by innings.	R.	H.	E.
Rome . . . . .020 000 000—2	5	2
Newnan . . . . .001 000 04x—5	8	1

Batteries—Winchell and Richards; Whitney and Matthews. Umpire, Davern. Time, 1:35.

Griffin 6, LaGrange 4.

Griffin, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—By an eighth inning batting rally Griffin defeated LaGrange in one of the fastest games that has been played on the local diamond, 6 to 4. Watson, for Griffin, and Livingston, for LaGrange, were hit frequently and hard, but Watson was strong in the pinches. The features of the game were the batting of Bowden, Pope and Kirk, for the home team, and Donaldson, Poland and Craven, for the visitors.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
LaGrange . . . . .020 020 000—4	12	2

Red Sox Buy Barry.

Boston, July 2.—Jack Barry, shortstop of the Philadelphia Athletics for several years, was sold to the Boston Americans today. He will oppose his former teammates tomorrow, when he will play second base for the Red Sox, President Lannin stated tonight.

The deal was accomplished at a cost of about $8,000 to the Boston management, it was said. Barry has been out of the game as a result of an injury to his hand, but Manager Mack said he was ready to play at any time.

The sale of Barry is the latest of a series of dismemberments of the baseball machine which brought Philadelphia many championships. Only a few of the stars of other days are left, and two of these, McInnis and Schang, have meen mentioned as on the market.

"It is my intention to build another championship team and my plans are well under way," Mack said tonight.

LAST DAY TO ENTER SOUTHERN TOURNEY

Prospects Are Bright for One of the Largest Tourneys Ever Held.

Today is the last in which players may enter the southern tennis championship tournament, which starts on the courts of the Atlanta Athletic club at East Lake Monday. Entries will be received until 5 o'clock tonight.

So far over fifty names have been turned into Carleton Smith, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the tourney, and of this list over thirty are out-of-town players. It is expected that at least ten more players will enter some time during the day, in the doubles, twenty-five teams have entered. The ladies' singles will have about fifteen entrants.

Some of the best players in the south are coming for the tourney. Emerson and Hardy, of Memphis, Tenn., are among the best. Emerson was formerly ranked as one of the leading ten players in the United States. Brooks and Bartlett, of Birmingham; Abdone and Shelton, of Dallas; Rogers and Lowry, of Knoxville, and Chambers and Patten, of Chattanooga, are some of the cracks that will start Monday. Several of the star players in the city tournament, which is in progress on the courts at Piedmont park, will also enter some time during the day.

Miss Murphy, of New Orleans, who is a former southern champion, will enter the ladies' singles, the committee receiving a wire from her to this effect Friday. Miss Legrende, who won the tourney last year, has not yet announced whether she will enter or not, but it is more than likely that she will. An effort is also being made to have several more players come from New Orleans, as well as other southern cities.

None of the eastern players, who have legs on the various cups, have entered yet, and it is very improbable that they will, although there is a possibility that some may enter at the last moment.

Carleton Smith is especially anxious to have the city players enter the tourney, and has extended a special invitation to them to enter. Jeff Hunt, who is considered one of the best players in the city, and Stewart Harris, also conceded to be able to wield a racket somewhat himself, are expected to enter.

Entries should be sent to Carleton Smith, at 608 Walton building, or care the Atlanta Athletic club.

SEMI-FINALS REACHED IN CITY TOURNEY

Stewart Harris, the youngster who is making such a sensational showing in the city tennis tourney, continued his good work Friday by downing Paul Wootten in the third round. Harris won the match in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3.

Five players survived the play Friday. Every match in the third round was completed with the exception of one, the Greene-Rhett match, which will be played today.

The players who are still in the running are Hunt, Harris, Jennings, in the semi-finals, and Rhett and Greene in the third round.

Eugene Black, who made such a good showing in his first two matches, met defeat Friday, losing to Jeff Hunt in the third round. Black gives promise of developing into a star and with a little more experience he should prove a winner.

The feature matches of today will be the Hunt-Harris and the one between Jennings and the winner of the Rhett-Greene match. The Hunt-Harris match should prove a corker. Both play practically the same game, being steady and consistent back court performers, neither hardly ever coming to the net. The match should prove interesting throughout. No matter what the outcome, the match is sure to be hotly contested. The Rhett-Greene mach and the Jennings winner of the Greene-Rhett match should also be corkers.

This afternoon, matches will start at 2 o'clock, promptly. All players who are still in tourney in the singels are notified to be on the courts ready to play by 2:15. The doubles round will start today also. It is the hope of the committee to be able to finish all matches, both in the singles and doubles, today. It is necessary that this be done, as if all matches are not completed this week, the tourney will have to be postponed.

The result of all matches played Friday is:

SINGLES.
Second Round.

J. D. Greene defeated Frank Beall 6-3, 9-7.

P. L. Wootten defeated W. P. Wilson, 6-2, 6-2.

Third Round.

Stewart Harris defeated P. L. Wootten, 6-0, 6-3.

Cedartown Won.

Cedartown, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Cedartown was too much for Lindale this afternoon, letting them down by the score of 7 to 3. Hicks pitched a magnificent game for the locals, giving up only one hit and keeping the Lindale players completely at his mercy. Lindale used three pitchers in the effort to stop the terrific hitting of the Cedartown team. The same teams will play here again today.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Lindale	100 002 000—3	1	3
Cedartown	000 022 03x—7	13	0

Batteries—Lindale, Campbell, Boote, Hamilton and Benedict; Cedartown, Hicks and Smith. Umpire, Mitchell.

AT THE THEATERS

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Several thousand people will bid farewell to vaudeville today. There will be two capacity-testing gatherings at the busy theater, who will see the last vaudeville performances. The bill this week has attracted much interest and excellent attendance. It is the sort of bill that has pleased local theater-goers. Princess Rajah, Henry Lewis, Julie Ring and company, Bert LaMont's Cowboys, Florrie Millership and MacRae and Clegg have all contributed to one of the best and one of the most entertaining vaudeville bills Atlanta has ever seen. For the time vaudeville is on vacation. The management has arranged for a series of high-class photo-drama presentations, the first to be "Scandal," the great Universal feature.

Mary Pickford.

(At the Grand.)

Mary Pickford, in "Little Pal," a splendid Paramount-Lasky picture, drew big crowds to the Grand yesterday and will draw bigger crowds today, for Mary Pickford has never had a better part, and it is sure that Lasky never turned out a better picture. The picture has a western atmosphere; it is thrilling and reel and actually alive with red-blooded happenings. In addition to the regular program, starting at 11 o'clock this morning, a program for children, selected by the recreation committee from the Atlanta Woman's club, will be given for the children of Atlanta, starting at 9 o'clock and ending at 11:30 o'clock. The feature of this program will be "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

"The Flying Twins."

(At the Strand.)

The Strand presents today Marian and Madeline Fairbanks, the Thanhouser twins, in a romance of the circus ring, "The Flying Twins." These girls are two of the loveliest in the world of moving pictures. They are being featured in this story of the saw dust ring. It is an elaborate and popular production in which any number of circus scenes are shown and Mr. Thanhouser hired a whole circus to take them. No expense has been spared to make the picture realistic. In addition to the twins, Harry La Pearle, the famous clown and acrobat, makes his debut upon the screen in this picture. The cast also includes Boyd Marshall, Ethel Jewett, Loraine Huling and Morris Foster.

EDUCATION BOARD PLANS FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

ily indorsed the proposal of Mr. Key, and would be glad to co-operate with the board in putting it into practical operation. He also approved of the plan to designate the Boys' high school principal as supervisor of high schools to act as intermediary between the assistant high school principal and the superintendent.

Several members of the board of education, when apprised of the act of the teachers' committee, declared it to be a solution of several problems that have confronted the board and indicated that they would approve the plan when it is put up to the entire board for action.

In this connection special committees from the board of education and the general council are already at work on a general plan for the proposed university high school, and Chairman Claude Ashley has received from educators in many cities of the country letters indorsing the consolidated high school and offers of assistance in putting the idea into operation in Atlanta.

The board of education and general council realize that the undertaking is so great that it will require several years to perfect it, but every preliminary step possible is being taken now with that end in view.

Coffee.

New York, July 2.—Some scattered evening up for over the holidays caused no change of importance in the market for cotton futures here today. The opening was nominally unchanged in the absence of business and the market closed net one point lower to two points higher. Sales, 10,000.

Spot, quiet. Rio No. 7, 7½; Santos No. 4, 9⅝. Cost and freight offers were reported a little more numerous from Santos, but prices were practically unchanged, 4s being quoted from 8.90 to 9.15 and Rio 7s at 6.90 to 7.00.

Rio exchange was ⅛c lower. Milreis prices unchanged. Brazilian port receipts 36,000; Jundiahy receipts 22,000.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

New York, July 2.—(Special.)—Liverpool was again weak this morning, although it is noticeable that spot sales continue large, today's total being 12,000 bales. Liverpool was a heavy seller here early, causing a decline of some 10 points, the cotton being taken largely by trade houses. The market subsequently recovered some buying for southern account.

Very heavy rains were reported in Georgia, Alabama and private telegrams were received that a severe storm was passing over both states. This information aided in the recovery. During the late afternoon the market was very quiet preceding the holidays. Neither of the American exchanges will be open until Tuesday.

Since the 25th of June, when the condition figures were made up, the weather has been by no means favorable and some complaints have consequently come to hand. While the temper of the trade remains bearish, it is our opinion that, as is usually the case at this season of the year, the question of price is question of crop, and despite the emphasis laid on conditions under which the trade has been working for six months any sharp deterioration in crop prospects will, in our judgment, be reflected in the market.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

New York, July 2.—(Special.)—Weakness in Liverpool and selling by that market here during the first hour brought about a decline of 10 points in prices before meeting with a substantial demand. At the lower level; however, short covering and buying for account of spinners set in, as a result of which prices recovered their early loss.

Reports of 5 inches of rain at several points in Georgia and a severe storm in Alabama caused some nervousness and added to the demand, which would undoubtedly broaden if crop reports continued unfavorable for a while.

New York, July 2.—Rather a sharp early decline in the cotton market was followed by rallies, with the close steady net unchanged to 6 points lower. Business was moderately active at the start, but became very quiet during the afternoon, and appeared to be largely in the way of evening up accounts for over the three-day adjournment.

That the failure of yesterday's government report to inspire any fresh demand of consequence was a disappointment to recent buyers abroad, was suggested by private cables, which reported scattering liquidation in a narrow market. The opening was easy at a decline of 6 to 9 points in response to the easier ruling of Liverpool, and houses with English connections were considerable sellers around the local ring during the early trading.

There was also quite a good deal of scattering local and southern liquidation, and active months sold 10 to 11 points under last night's closing figures before the end of the first hour.

After the close abroad had shut out arbitrage business, offerings became much smaller, however, and prices rallied on covering for over the holidays, while some scattered buying may have been inspired by reports of heavy rains in Alabama and Georgia, and rumors that 25,000 bales of the local stock were to be shipped out to Russia within the next few days. Active months sold a point or two net higher on this demand, but the advance was checked by realizing and fluctuations in the latter trading were somewhat irregular.

Exports for the day were 12,250 bales; so far this season 8,140,246 bales. Port receipts, 4,047; United States port receipts, 84[illegible]122. The new New York Cotton Exchange Clearing association started business today with a membership of sixty-six firms or individuals.

Poor Demand Affects New Orleans.

New Orleans, July 2.—The cotton market was easy today around the opening and the close, but was steady at the middle of the session and for a while stood at the level of yesterday's close. In the early trading prices lost 8 to 9 points chiefly under liquidation; this loss was recovered on profit-taking by scalping shorts, but late in the session offerings increased and the close was at a net loss of 4 to 6 points.

Scattered short selling was in evidence nearly all day and was based on the poor cables and lack of export business. The inability of shippers to put through any forward business is now daily causing unfavorable comment and is stimulating selling which the bears consider to be strong in character.

Weather conditions were not as unfavorable as they have been as little rain fell in Oklahoma and Arkansas, while scattered showers over other states of the belt were considered favorable. Trading was restricted by the triple holidays in the American markets, following the close tonight.

Spot cotton, quiet unchanged. Sales on the spot, 150 bales; to arrive, 300. Good ordinary, 6.99; strict good ordinary, 7.55; low middling, 8.18; strict low middling, 8.63; middling, 9.00; strict middling, 9.25; good middling, 9.57; strict good middling, 9.94. Receipts, 308; stock, 172,256.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, July 2.—Cotton, spot good business done; prices easier. Good middling, 5.50; middling, 5.20; low middling, 4.74. Sales, 12,000 bales, including 11,500 American and 4,000 for speculation and export. No receipts. Futures closed barely steady.

RANGE IS ERRATIC ON STOCK EXCHANGE

New York, July 2.—Stocks pursued an erratic course today, price changes being more than ordinarily confusing. Some standard issues were up while others were lower; the same condition applying to numerous specialties. Trading was dull except during the first and final hours, when the weakness of United States Rubber and St. Paul created general unsettlement. Initial sales of rubber were at 45 to 46, against yesterday's close of 51 7-8. From this level the stock declined to 44 1-4, making moderate recovery later.

Canadian Pacific fell to 142, a fraction above its low record, and St. Paul fell to 83 3-4 on rumors affecting the maintenance of its dividend.

Steel's strength was ascribed to the optimistic statements of trade authorities, which found partial confirmation in further price advances of certain manufactured materials.

Further heavy selling of international bonds, presumably for foreign interests, was a feature. Total bond sales, par value, $2,810,000.

United States bonds unchanged.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW BUSINESS SITUATION

New York, July 2.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Further improvement, notwithstanding vagaries of the weather and slow movements at some points, is the outstanding feature of this week's reports. Where the weather has been favorable seasonable goods have moved from the counters of retail dealers in larger volume, and though clearance sales have been a stimulus to this line, faith in the future is marked. Crops, collectively considered, are promising, some of them more so than ever before. War orders are of enormous proportions; brass mills in New England, sold far ahead, are intensely active, machine tool plants are overflowing with orders, subletting of contracts being a feature. Steel mills are doing more; specifications for finished steel are larger; the melt of pig iron is increasing; idleness continues to decrease; efforts of war orders are spreading out to other lines, percolating, as it were, through general trade; money is easy and country banks are drawing funds for crop-moving purposes.

"Bank clearings, $3,269,509,000 for week."

WEEKLY REVIEW WOOLEN MARKET

Boston, July 2.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"London has rendered a verdict in favor of firm prices this week at the opening days of the sale and the world has renewed its confidence in the future of the wool market. Sales here have been larger and prices are decidedly firm, while buying in the west continues at fully last week's prices. There has been an increased quantity of domestic wool—mostly territory—moved, but the bulk of the business is again in foreign wool.

Cotton Seed Oil.

New York, July 2.—Cotton seed oil was heavy, closing 5 to 8 points net lower. Scattered liquidation, coupled with poor demand generally, and the decline in hog products, were the depressing features. There were further July tenders today of 2,000 barrels, making about 20,000 thus far. Total sales, 6,000 barrels.

WHEAT ADVANCES ON JULY SHORTS

Traders in Oats Fear a Squeeze in July Options Also—Corn Follows Other Grain Advance.

Chicago, July 2.—Scarcity of wheat available for delivery on July contracts resulted today in a decided flurry among shorts. After a nearly vertical advance throughout most of the session, the market closed strong at 1 3-8 to 4 1-8c above last night. Corn finished 1-4@3-8c to 5-8@3-4c up, and oats with a gain of 1-2@5-8c to 2 1-4c. In provisions the outcome was a decline of 5@7 1-2c to 7 1-2c.

Corn sympathized with the strength of wheat.

Traders in oats were confronted with signs of a possible squeeze in the July option, paralleling the situation as to wheat. Active shipping call gave cash oats a decided lift.

Provisions sagged owing to lower prices for hogs.

JAPAN MENACES CHINA BECAUSE OF BOYCOTT

Pekin Is Told That Temper of the Japanese May Force Strong Measures.

Pekin, July 3.—(12:30 a. m.)—Owing to the serious boycotts and because of the Chinese formation of patriotic societies, Ekihioki, Japanese minister to China, on behalf of Japan, has repeatedly protested to the foreign office.

The Japanese minister is quoted as saying, according to unquestionable Chinese information, that the temper of the Japanese people may overpower the Japanese government and compel stronger measures against China.

Federal Posseman Acquitted of Murder Of Alleged Moonshiner

Rome, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—Oscar Bradley, a federal posseman, accused of the murder of R. O. Ralston, alleged illicit distiller, has been acquitted in federal court.

The case presented several peculiar features. Bradley was defended by the United States district attorney, who is usually the prosecutor in cases in federal court. He was prosecuted by Solicitor General W. H. Ennis, of the Rome circuit. The defense took the view that Ralston was trying to escape arrest, and that the posseman, who was assisting the deputy marshal, W. A. Wardlaw, found it necessary to shoot in carrying out his duty.

YARYAN CASE DECIDED.

Judge Speer Orders Sale of Two Plants.

Brunswick, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—The last litigation in the long-drawn-out legal fight of the Yaryan Naval Stores company was concluded by Judge Speer, of the United States court, at St. Simons today, when a final decree was entered and an order passed for the sale of the two plants of the company, the Brunswick plant to be sold on August 3. R. R. Hopkins and C. H. Leavy, both of this city, were appointed commissioners to conduct the sale.

The report of Special Master R. D. Meadow fixing fees of the various attorneys was filed with court at the session today. Various members of the creditors' committee attended the hearing and made talks before the court, stating that reorganization plans were now well under way and that they hoped to have the plant in operation again within a few months.

Making Faces at Cop Costs Small Negro Boy 11 Days in Stockade

It required the services of a policeman in citizens' clothes to put a stop to a diminutive "devilish" darky teasing a 6-foot cop.

Officer W. C. Hardy, whose beat is at the union passenger station, had Charlie Jones, a small negro, before the recorder Friday afternoon on the charge of violating the rule about grabbing grips under the car shed and then running off and making faces at the officer.

It was impossible for the 6-foot cop to outrun the fleet-footed darky, and so Officer McWilliams, in citizens' clothes, slipped up behind Charlie when he was engaged in "making faces" and nabbed him.

Countess Prochaska Lists Her Last Piece Of Atlanta Property

Countess Mary Grant Dickson Prochaska, of Augusta, Ga., formerly Miss Grant Dickson, of Atlanta, who at one time owned considerable Atlanta property, has listed her last piece of city property with the A. F. & H. J. West agency. This property is a lot 50x150 feet on Dickson place, north of East Eleventh street. The last valuable parcel of Countess Prochaska to be sold was the Elysee apartments on Peachtree street, south of Tenth, which Colonel H. H. Dean, of Gainesville, Ga., bought for $55,000 cash.

Raises Big Wheat Crop.

Perry, Ga., July 2.—(Special.)—W. E. Ingram, about three miles from town, harvested 20 acres of wheat this season which yielded 20 bushels per acre. He runs a threshing machine and says this is the largest yield he had heard of. A number of farmers have gathered 15 bushels per acre.

OUTBREAK OF FEUD FEARED AT PROBE

No arrests have been made. It is doubtful that any will be until the inquest is resumed and completed.

The families of the slain men and their sympathizers, many of whom gathered on the Alabama side of the Chattahoochee this morning with the father and brothers of the victims, reside in Alabama but a few miles from the river, the boundary of the two states. The sympathizers and friends of the family of Manse Teal—Epps Melton's victim two years ago—live mostly in Harris county on the Georgia side.

Sympathy for Dead Men.

In Alabama sympathy for the dead men reigns in Riverview, the home of the Meltons, and Blanton, the quaint little railway station 2 miles above Blanton's Ferry, where today's exciting events occurred, and where the family and many friends of John Leake live. Considerable sentiment is also felt in West Point, where the Epps brothers were widely known.

Residents of the communities on the Alabama side are determined that the investigation shall not slacken and that the guilty persons shall be brought to justice. They have contributed to the fund to employ Lawyer McKinney. The investigation, so far as the prosecution and Mr. McKinney are concerned, is awaiting word from Judge Gilbert.

"It is not the danger to my own life that concerns me," said Mr. McKinney tonight, "so much as it is the welfare of the communities at stake. A factional demonstration would mean horribly more than the citizens imagine. I do not attempt to deny that there is factional enmity and a dangerous feud spirit. I admit it.

"Today's incidents prove it. But we must not let fear or favor handicap the investigation and prosecution I hope to bring about. No matter if it moves heaven and earth, the men guilty of the murders will be brought to justice, and that as soon as possibilities offer. Feud uprisings can be eliminated."

River Divides Factions.

It seemed as though the hand of the Almighty fell upon the hills and valleys of the state boundary this morning to intervene between the factions when they gathered upon the two banks of the swollen Chattahoochee to decide who slew the three men and why.

On the Georgia side of the river stood the coroner and his jury and a big gathering of friends of Manse A. Teal, the man who was slain two years ago by Epps Melton, and whose death is generally accredited with being the cause of this week's triple tragedy. On the Alabama side were the father of the slain Epps boys and the brothers of John Leake, the third victim, with their friends and intimates.

Walter McKinney, the attorney employed by citizens of a number of communities on the Georgia side of the river, and by the families of the dead man, appeared in the throng of Melton-Leake sympathists, his stenographer carrying a typewriter prepared to take dictation of the proposed evidence that would—in event it had been given—been used to prosecute the men held for the triple murder.

A feeling of impending conflict surcharged the atmosphere. One glance at the tempestuous waters was convincing that an attempt to navigate them was folly. The ferry had been sunken by the flood, and only a flat-bottom batteau furnished any possible means of crossing

Crossing Too Dangerous.

Even the ferryman, John Ware, a master boatman, who had run the Blanton ferry for years, veritably living upon the river, advised that it would be folly to take the risk. He himself would not undertake it for thousands. He thought too much of his wife and children.

Lawyer McKinney, at whose instigation the coroner's inquest had been adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock, climbed to a knoll overlooking the opposite shore, and, megaphoning his hands, called out to the gathering of men on the Georgia side:

"We can't get across; will it be all right to postpone the inquest until Monday morning at 9 o'clock?"

Across the noisy waters came the reply:

"You're not afraid to come over, are you?"

"It is too big a risk," answered the lawyer, standing in the beating rain.

"You can come on over in the boat," came from the other shore. "We are all ready over here."

Whispered and hurried consultations were held among the groups on the Alabama side. But, above all, was the constant warning of the ferryman:

"I tell you, boys, I've been here nigh on to twenty years now, and I know what I'm talking about—it's a life insurance proposition. You can go on and row yourselves over, but I wouldn't put myself in that boat for every cotton mill between here and West Point."

There was no visible show of fear among the cotton-shirted, booted and wide-hatted young and old farmers and mill workers on the Georgia side, but they wagged grave heads when they measured the frail batteau with the merciless waters beyond. Occasionally, loud but indistinct choruses came from the other shore. They bore the unmistakable tone of derision.

Eventually, it was exactly an hour and thirty minutes after the first men had appeared upon the Alabama side, the faction sympathizing with the father and brothers of the slain men decided to abandon the risk, and I, in the capacity of newspaper man and emissary to the opposite shore, got my first taste of feud spirit in its most decided form. Anxious to get statements for The Constitution from the Hargett brothers and John Lands, the three witnesses who are said to have been with the slain men on the auto ride when they were last seen alive, I volunteered to hazard the river.

Decides to Make Attempt.

It had been hollered across from the Georgia side the Lands and the Hargetts were present and ready for the inquest. This had been communicated to the Alabama faction in the manner of an inducement to come across. I knew that this would be undoubtedly my only opportunity to get statements from the men around whom the investigation is centering.

The moment I made my proposal known a widespread counsel arose. The river would surely upset the boat, and, even though I got across safely, I would not meet a pleasant reception from the men who would now resent invasion from the Alabama side, and who, naturally, did not take kindly to strangers in checkered suits, a Peachtree straw hat and the temerity to wear a life belt upon an inland stream, which I proposed to do.

The aged ferryman almost unnerved me; the other newspaper correspondents refused to sanction the trip, and the county official—I think it was ordinary—asked my home address. No one would volunteer to row the boat, except an ancient negro named "Handy," to whom a dollar looked mighty tempting.

With "Handy" in the stern, a lifebelt around my waist—a huge cork affair with the name "S. S. Jim Hancock" painted around it—I sat in the boat and we cut aloose. In the center of the stream we began to swirl, and I grew dizzy—I think "Handy" did, too, for I observed vaguely that he failed to dodge a heavy log plunging downstream with the maze of others; our boat was almost capsized.

My shoes were untied, my coat was off, my belt unbuckled, in order to make swimming easy, when we landed with a bump far downstream on the other shore.

I sought to unlimber my most ingratiating smile with:

"Pardon my appearance, but a city guy isn't used to so much water and all this."

It failed to stir even the faintest suggestion of a smile. The fleeting impression I got was that each man, most of them with arms folded in wait-

While I stood, unbalanced most of the time by the rocking waters, making a spectacle of myself trying to untie the lifebelt, I caught sight of an officious looking man in gray, patched trousers, who seemed anxious to make it known, by various doings about, that he was in charge of affairs. I later found him to be the coroner, Tom Dorman, a man for whose smile I shall forever be grateful.

"Where is the coroner?" I asked.

"I'm the man," he replied.

"I want to speak with either of the Hargett brothers or John Lands," I asked.

"Well, they're not here at present," I was told, "but there's a brother to the Hargetts over there in a buggy."

The brother was a grim-faced man of perhaps 38. I introduced myself, proved my identity by a batch of dampened letters in my pocket and asked if he knew where I could find his brothers.

"I guess they're 'tending to their own business," he answered sourly.

"I don't doubt it," I rejoined with as much cheer as I could muster.

"Would you want to make any statement to The Constitution in their behalf?"

"I guess they'll make one whenever they are called for it. They're caing attitude, had the question on their lips:

"Well, now that you're here—what about it?"

pable of it."

The men along the shore were crowding around. The absolute quiet gave me stage fright. I looked around to see if "Handy" was available in case of emergency.

"What do you know about them?" he asked, peering meaningly into my face. His face was tanned, ruddy. His eyes were cold gray. I shall never forget his face.

"I know nothing, except what I've heard," I answered quickly.

"What have you heard?" he shot back.

"Why, that they were out riding with the murdered men the last time they were seen alive."

"Do you know they were murdered?"

"Not that I could swear to, inasmuch—"

"Then why say murder?"

"I—I say only by hearsay—"

"Then say this—they don't know anything. All anybody knows is three bodies were found in the river."

Inquest Is Postponed.

The crowd was becoming too aroused by the anger in Hargett's voice. I thanked him and looked around for "Handy." I then gave the coroner the message sent by Lawyer McKinney—that the inquest would be called Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

A general murmur of dissent went up from the gathering. They derided the attitude of the attorney and his clients and the crowd on the Alabama side.

"If one man can come over—they ought to have nerve enough to. They're 'fraid."

"Let's go on and have the inquest, anyhow." This came from a stolid, bewhiskered man who had evidently been drinking.

For awhile it appeared as though the Georgians would go ahead with the proceedings without the participation of McKinney or his clients. They had practically informed me to this effect when "Handy" and I pushed off from shore. I floated into midstream, believing that the inquest was about to be launched. Hardly had "Handy" and I begun battling with the current in midstream than there came a call from the coroner:

Supplementing this came a heavy voice, which I did not recognize, saying:

"Tell old man Melton and them Leakes and their crowds to come on over here."

I delivered my message. Later it was decided upon the Alabama banks if the opposite shores were so anxious to hold an inquest, they come on across to Alabama soil. This was yelled across the river. It met a chorus of derisive dissension.

"No; if there's going to be any inquest it's going to be held over here where it ought to be."

The bodies were found in midstream.

I observed that the men gathered around old man Tony Melton, a man of 55, stolid, taciturn, were quieter and more subdued than the men on the opposite bank. They did more whispering than shouting.

PREVENTION VS. CURE

The main reason why corporations that have large lists of stockholders and float their paper on the open market have yearly audits by Certified Public Accountants is—

That the management and stockholders want to know definitely, not only what the business has produced, but that the statement is correct.

When trouble comes the accountant's services are first in demand.

Why not beforehand, as a prevention instead of a cure?
